

WEEDS

Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

NOT IN ANY TRUST

Many newspapers have lately given currency to reports by irresponsible parties to the effect that

THE NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO. had entered a trust or combination; we wish to assure the public that there is no truth in such reports. We have been manufacturing sewing machines for over a quarter of a century, and have established a reputation for ourselves and our machines that is the envy of all others. Our "See Home" machine has never been rivaled as a family machine. It stands at the head of all High Grade sewing machines, and stands on its own merits.

The "See Home" is the only really HIGH GRADE Sewing Machine on the market. It is not necessary for us to enter into a trust to save our credit or pay any debts as we have no debts to pay. We have never entered into competition with manufacturers of low grade cheap machines that are made to sell regardless of any intrinsic merits. Do not be deceived, when you want a sewing machine don't send your money away from home; call on a "See Home" Dealer, he can sell you a better machine for less than you can purchase elsewhere. If there is no dealer near you, write direct to us.

A BRIGAND WHO LEVIES TAXES.

He Also Preserves the Peace and Protects Property.

"Brigandage is still rampant in many rural districts in Italy," said Dr. Ravogli, the resident Italian consul, to an Enquirer representative recently.

"From advices I receive occasionally I keep in touch with home affairs, and a letter from a friend in Trieste contains a reference to Tiburzi, one of the most picturesque of these freebooters. Tiburzi is about 48. At the beginning of his career he was as bad as others of the same vocation in life; in 1872 he was caught, convicted of highway robbery and murder, and sentenced to imprisonment for life. He escaped in 1874 and took refuge in a wood near Viterbo, where he lived in security, in spite of 17 warrants and a large reward for his arrest. The reason of this security is simple enough. He was good to the poor—any peasant in need of help could always get a gold coin from Tiburzi—and he punished traitors. Consequently the peasants were ready to assist him against the police or government emissaries, and those who would willingly have given information were afraid to do so.

"After his escape Tiburzi altered his method of gaining a living. He caused it to be made known to all the well-to-do people in the district that if they paid him an annual contribution he would not interfere with them, and would protect them from molestation by others. It was considered advisable to agree, and Tiburzi has been for years in receipt of a large income, one man alone paying him £150 a year. Crime has considerably diminished in the district; the smaller fry dare not molest Tiburzi's proteges, for he is still a good shot with his English repeating rifle. Tiburzi does what the government cannot do; he collects taxes without trouble and he keeps down crime.

"It must not be supposed that he hides in the woods all day. He can walk about the whole district without fear of capture, and he lives in good style. He goes to Rome sometimes, presumably in disguise, and has even been abroad. Will he ever be arrested? Time alone will tell."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Substitutes for Panama Hats.

Panama straw hats are highly fashionable in Japan, though on account of the price, which is much higher than that of the ordinary straw hats, they are bought only by the rich or the fashionable. This obstacle may be removed if, as reported in an Osaka paper, the substitutes for the Panama straw found in middle Formosa are really adapted for the purpose. The substitutes are said to be the fibers of the leaves of a certain tropical tree of very rapid growth. Six fibers can be obtained from each leaf, which is about four inches wide and four feet long, and it is said that the cost of 10,000 fibers is about six yen. A certain foreign firm of Yokohama is said to have already given a large order for the fibers, and the Panama hats made with this new material may therefore appear on the market this summer. If the new fibers are really suited for headgear Formosa may be said to have hit upon a new resource.—Japan Weekly Times.

Chances for a Divorce.

He—I understand young Simkins and his wife are not living happily together.

She—What seems to be the trouble?

"Incompatibility of temper."

"Which is at fault?"

"Both. He furnishes the incompatibility and she supplies the temper."—Chicago Daily News.

He'd Done It Before.

"You look after the dime," he said in his lordly manner at the conclusion of a few remarks on the cost of running a house, "and I'll look after the dollars."

"I've been looking after the dime all my life," she protested, indignantly; "that's all I've got to look after, while you—you—"

"Marion," he cautioned, fearful that there was about to be an explosion.

"—while you have been diligently looking after the dollars—"

His face relaxed in a gratified smile.

"—to spend," she said in conclusion.

He realized then that she had made a study of him.—Chicago Post.

So Sudden.

Gushing Young Man (taking elderly spinster into his confidence)—Miss Wellalong, I have written a poem, addressed "To a Young Lady." Let me read it to you:

"For love of you, dear Hazel, I—"
Elderly Spinster (sighing)—Law, Mr. Spoonmore! My eye is not hazel! It's dark brown!—Chicago Tribune.

Well-Directed Sympathy.

The German pastor of a suburban church, listening a moment to an amateur performer in behalf of some local guild, was heard to remark:

"Dot makes me sorry for dot biano."

"Why not for the people?" a bystander asked.

"Der pebble can git away," the answer came. "Der biano must stay."—Boston Courier.

Made of the Right Stuff.

"What are your qualifications for an umpire?" asked the president of the league.

"I fell down an elevator shaft, was run over by a motor car, dropped out of a balloon and rode ten miles on a cyclone. I'm in fair condition yet."

"You're engaged for next season?"—Detroit Free Press.

Differences.

"They say that human nature is always the same," said the middle-aged lady. "But I don't think so."

"What's the reason?" asked her niece.

"Twenty years ago girls read magazines and did needle work. Now they study a road map and learn to use a monkey wrench."—Washington Star.

An Acrobatic Pianist.

A Milan correspondent tells of a pianist named Banca, who at Venice recently set himself to break the record of piano playing, so far as time is concerned. Apparently what the musician had to surpass was a 40 hours' sitting at the instrument. This he undertook to do by hammering the keys for 30 consecutive hours, that appalling period being only broken by three short rests of ten minutes each. This feat was duly accomplished in the presence of a committee of doctors and musicians. When the two days, two nights and two hours had expired, Banca played the Italian national anthem with a jubilant flourish, and left the piano amid the enthusiastic cheers of an enormous audience. The whole of the receipts were given to the fund in aid of the survivors of the recent volcanic disasters in the West Indies.—London News.

Placing the Blame.

Miss Oldtimer—It is not for lack of opportunities that I remained unmarried.

Her Niece—I presume not; but the men do not always take advantage of the opportunities that are offered them.—Woman's Home Companion.

Fast Life.

Aunt Miranda—I suppose you saw Mary's girl when you was down to the city. Has she grown much since they moved away from Basswood Corner?

Uncle Jedediah—Grown! Why, she's grownin' yet. You won't believe it, but her newest dress only reaches to her shoulders.—Brooklyn Life.

Not the Right Man.

"Yes, dear, I had to decline him, because I knew he could never make me a happy woman."

"Why do you think that?"

"He told me he would never live beyond his income even for my sake."—Town Topics.

An Autumn Discrepancy.

Another dark source is blamed to the sum of seven dollars for the discrepancy. The longer the nights that are chilly become.

The shorter the bed covers seem.—Washington Star.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million battles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by H. M. Horton, Burns; Fred Haines, Harney.

THE FORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT FOR CONSTIPATION

Constipation is nothing more than a clogging of the bowels and nothing less than vital stagnation or death if not relieved. If every constipated sufferer could realize that he is allowing poisonous filth to remain in his system, he would soon get relief. Constipation invites all kind of contagion. Headaches, biliousness, colds and many other ailments disappear when constipated bowels are relieved. The Ford's Black-Draught thoroughly cleans out the bowels in an easy and natural manner without the purging of calomel or other violent cathartics.

Be sure that you get the original Ford's Black-Draught, made by The Chattanooga Medicine Co. Sold by all druggists in 25 cent and $1.00 packages.

Norman, Ark., May 23, 1901.
I cannot recommend Ford's Black-Draught too highly. I keep it in my house all the time and have used it for the last ten years. I never gave my children any other laxative. I think I could never be able to work without it on account of being troubled with constipation. Your medicine is all that keeps me up.
