Elect a New Pope.

Cardinal Guiseppe Sarlo, patriarch of Venice, was elected pope Tuesday to succeed Leo XIII, and now reigns at the Vatican and over the Catholic world as Pius X.

The new pope was born at Venice June 2, 1835. He was consecrated a priest in 1858, and became coadjutor to the priest at Tombolo, Padua; promoted to a parishes priest at Salzano in 1867; elected chancellor of the bishopric of Treviso in 1875, and later vicar-general appointed bishop of Mantua in 1884; made a cardinal in 1893 and appointed patriarch of Venice.

Dispatches state that in several respects the new pontiff resembles his predecessor, notably in his reputation for culture and piety. He is recognized as the greatest preacher in the church. No new policies will be adopted in the church. General satisfaction is expressed among the cardinals regarding the election.

Mr. D. P. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Sumner counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea; was attended by two physicians who gave him little, if any, relief, when a neighbor learning of his serious condition, brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than twenty-four hours. For sale by H. M. Horton, Burns; Ered Haines, Harney.

Coughing

"I was given up to die with quick consumption. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I improved at once, and am now in perfect health."—Chas. E. Hartman, Gibbstown, N. Y.

It's too risky, playing with your cough.

The first thing you know it will be down deep in your lungs and the play will be over. Begin early with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and stop the cough.

Three sizes: 25c., 50c., $1. All druggists.

Consult your doctor. If he says take it, then do as he says. If he tells you not to take it, then don't take it. He knows, knows it with him. We are willing.

The escaped convicts from the Folsom prison seem to have escaped their pursuers since the battle last week in which two of the posse were killed and another wounded. However, numerous parties are engaged in the man-hunt and they may yet be overtaken before they cross into Nevada. The convicts have divided into several bands which makes the search more difficult. Blood hounds have been secured and will be placed on the trail.

A kicker who is always kicking in the community is no advantage to that community. He is too trifling to undertake anything himself and is too selfish to encourage his neighbor who is trying to get along. The man who constantly discourages but never encourages you is not your friend, no matter what professions he may make. The man who never sees any good in his fellow man is lacking in that essential commodity himself. Don't place too much stress, therefore, upon the vapor-ings of the kicker, says a writer.
