This paper and The Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean $1.50 for one year. "Special deal"

The Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean is the only weekly newspaper published in Chicago in connection with the great daily papers. It contains a judiciously selected summary of the news of the nation and world, the best stories, home, farm, woman's, and other special departments, and fair, patriotic, able editorials, written from a Republican viewpoint. It is by far the best general newspaper of the Western States. The regular price for the Weekly Inter Ocean is $1.00 and for the Harney Valley Items $1.50, but subscriptions will be received at this office for the two papers in combination for one year for only $1.50.

Stomach Trouble.
"I have been troubled with my stomach for the past four years," says D. L. Beach, of Clover Nook Farm, Greenfield, Mass. Senator Hanna's delicate health continues and he will be able to talk but little in the fall campaign. Fortunately his only opponent is Tom Johnson on a "16 to 1" platform.

We are informed that the surveying of the Sweek addition to the Burns townsite is to be completed within the next few days and the lots placed upon the market at once.

Mr. Jenkins D. Jenkins a sheepman of this county, who arrived a few days since from the vicinity of Vale reports plenty of alfalfa hay in that part of the county for sale at $5.00 per ton, whereas $6.00 per ton is the lowest price at which good hay can be purchased in this part of the country. We are glad to be able to state however that the hay famine scare is subsiding, or some reason.

In his Milwaukee speech Mr. Roosevelt said that the trusts are "the result of an inevitable process of economic evolution." Old "Bob" Breckinridge of Kentucky dropped into church one evening while services were in progress. In the course of his remarks the clergyman said that "slavery is a divine institution." The congregation was considerably disturbed to hear "Bob" blurt out from the rear: "And so is h—!"—Joel in Globe.

Within our knowledge, at least two large fine horses have bogged down and perished in the mud or swamp hole at the roadside at the Warm Springs near the Austin Goodman ranch south of town. From what we have seen of the place it is extremely dangerous for any and all stock that may go to these springs for water because of the enticing green grass that is growing upon the dangerous rotten turf. We don't know whether it is the official business of any one to see to the fencing of such places, but it occurs to us that our county court could not expend a few dollars of the county's money to a better advantage, than the fencing of this truly dangerous place.

Some excitement was occasioned on our streets Thursday by the breaking out of fire in the hayfields of Wm. Hanley and the P. L. S. Co., along the river a few miles below town. Quite a number of our townspeople hurried out to aid in the extinguishment of the fire which seemed to be doing great damage, but through the earlier efforts of a number of ranchmen of the vicinity, progress of the flames had been so checked that the crowd soon completed their extinguishment. The resultant damages were 100 tons of Wm. Hanley's hay, and 50 tons belonging to the P. L. S. Co., and a strip of winter pasture one by three miles in area. Although the flames were extinguished, the burning tule roots are still sending up large volumes of smoke, but the smoldering fire is being closely watched by interested parties who are fully able to prevent its further spread. It is stated that the fire started from the stub of a burning match carelessly cast to the ground by a cigar smoker. The fact the fire was purposely started is however, poor consolation to the losers.

Assault on the Priest.

Baker City, Or., Sept. 21—Civil and criminal suits will begin this afternoon against Bishop O'Reilly, Father Gartland, Father Heinrich, I. B. Bowen, a newspaper man; Jack Burns, a mining engineer, and Deputy Sheriff Henple. These are the persons who, it is alleged, through force deprived Father Desmarais of his liberty and possession of the parish home Saturday afternoon.

The arrest and subsequent incarceration was the most spectacular event that has ever transpired in Baker City. Father Desmarais and his demented sister have been released from custody in the county jail because no charge had been filed against them calling for their arrest and no subsequent charge could legally be filed.

Father Desmarais, through his attorney, George J. Bentley, will this afternoon cause the arrest of the two priests and two laymen, also Bishop O'Reilly and the deputy sheriff and the six will be tried in the police court for riotous conduct in the streets of Baker City.

The members of the church have divided themselves into factions. The largest faction, it is said, is furnishing money to support Father Desmarais in his suits against the bishop and others. If they appear in police court this afternoon the crowd witnessing it will probably be the largest that has ever gathered in the little structure in which Judge Bentley dispenses law.

The sheriff's office was deceived into action Saturday by a telephone message from I. B. Bowen, stating that a crazy woman was acting in a dangerous manner in the parish home. When the deputy arrived he found the party named waiting for him, and entrance into the parish house was forced. According to the story which reaches the public, the woman alleged to be crazy was quietly awaiting them with her brother, Father Desmarais. Father Gartland, with the bishop, seized Father Desmarais by the throat and forced him to the floor. Later Father Desmarais secured a pistol and the struggle between the lone priest defending his sister and the two priests, the bishop, the two laymen and the deputy sheriff ensued.

The defending priest was overpowered with the gun in his hand. As the sheriff was arranging handcuffs the sister seized them, and with her two hands broke them into fragments. It now appears that the party forcing entrance had no legal authority and the charge of riotous conduct and suits for heavy damages will result this afternoon.

Archbishop Christie of the Diocese of Oregon, will take no action in regard to the Baker City affair. His powers do not cover the present case.

"Each bishop is the supreme head of his diocese or bishopric," said a priest this afternoon, "and Bishop O'Reilly is answerable only to Mgr. Falconio, the papal delegate at Washington, D. C."
