A Remarkable Record. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by H. M. Horton, Burns; Fred Haines, Harney.

The preachers and gamblers are having a lively time of it in Portland. This will probably be one incident in which the gambler wins and the other fellow loses.

The Burns hotel changed hands on the first of the month. Mrs. Thos. Curl is the new landlady. The Burns hotel has a reputation in eastern Oregon as a place where patrons are treated as princes. Mrs. Curl is one of the most experienced of cooks, and will superintend the kitchen herself.

Ed C. Allen took his departure Thursday for Pendleton. Ed is quite well known in this city as a duck hunter.—He killed a duck while here. Some say the poor thing was shot in the back. Vick Cozad, a very prominent attorney from Canyon City purchased a few ducks of a boy down the valley and gave them to Ed.

Miss Gussie Metzker the 16-year old daughter of James Metzker proprietor of the camas prairie saw mill came near losing her life about two weeks ago, by having her clothing caught in a fast revolving shaft. She attempted to step over the shaft that runs the saw, which revolves 300 times per minute, and a knuckle joint at this place caught in her skirt and tore her clothing completely from her. She was thrown violently to the floor and bruised badly pretty well over her body. Had her clothing been strong and refused to give away she would have been hurled to instant death.—Lakeview Examiner.

John Robinson has purchased the interests of Henry Welcome in the Johnson & Welcome band of cattle running in the Clover swail country. Johnie has taken up land in that neighborhood which soon promises to be an ideal hay section. He left this morning with a few supplies for the ranch.

Ed Allen and H. Y. Blackwell returned Tuesday from a trip south of Stein Mountain. The gentlemen are on a deal for the Sisson Cattle Co. in the Pueblo. They want about 600 head of beef cattle and if their deal for the above is not consummated they will probably try to purchase in the Valley.

Our old-time friend Dell Overton, lately of Westfall now of Sierra Valley, Nevada stopped over night in this city, this week. Dell is now the owner of a fine 900 acre hay ranch in one of the best localities in the wide west. His many Burns friends wish him continued success wherever he may choose to live.

Mr. William Gibson, formerly of this county, but now of the neighborhood of Weiser, Idaho, came back here a few days ago, to buy a bunch of cows and calves. He has found prices here low enough to suit him, and says that good cows and calves are worth $20 each in his vicinity. He seems really a tonished to find prices so low here. What is our county Live Stock Association for anyway?

Mr. John T. Whistler of the U. S. geological survey spent a few days in this vicinity this week, looking after matters here connected with the department which he serves. Mr. Whistler is one of the bright men, also one of the right men for the work in which he is engaged. While he is inclined to take a hopeful view of the situation here as regards the prospect for the government ultimately taking hold of the Silivies River irrigation project yet he is not one of the over confident and positive kind who would have it appear that actual construction work on the Silivies reservoir, dams, ditches, etc., will be begun at once by the government.

Mrs. Phoebe Moffett, wife of Robert P. Moffett, died at Sage Hen yesterday. Mr. Moffett was enroute to California with his wife, where he expected the climate would prove beneficial to her health, but on reaching Sage Hen, a stop was made owing to a serious turn in the condition of his wife who soon succumbed to that fatal malady consumption, which had been manifest for some time past. The deceased was about 40 years of age and has been a resident of Harney County for a number of years. She was the mother of two children, aged 18 and 12 respectively. Besides the above she leaves a husband and two brothers, J. P. and William H. Gearheart, of Calamity, to mourn her loss. The remains will be brought to Burns and the interment will take place here tomorrow.

Lower Chewacan marsh a low meadow land of vast extent lying 30 miles north of Lakeview, has been almost wholly consumed by a fire which lasted several days and destroyed over 5000 tons of hay. A message from the scene of conflagration summoned all available men from Lakeview to help hold the flames in check. It is not possible to estimate the damage done until the severity of the weather has determined the extent of the loss of cattle. It is difficult to account for the persistence of the flames as they seem to run everywhere. All the Hereford Bros.' hay was destroyed, as was also all that belongs to the Britains in that section. The fire almost consumed the portion of the marsh belonging to the J. B. Haggan company of Sacramento. Ten thousand cattle were to have been wintered in the marsh.

Her Last Request.

Sadness reigned throughout the household. The angle of death stood knocking at the door of a once happy home. By the side of a snow white cot, a loving husband, bent with the burden of many years, received the last parting request from a dear old wife. Tears stained the old man's face as he leaned forward and eagerly drank in every motion, every murmur that rose from those feeble old lips he loved so well. John, dear I must leave you. I must go to my long rest. I have one request. I would that thy dear old hands and thine alone should place me in my last resting place. Bury me not in yonder church yard John, beneath those beautiful blooming flowers' for more than these I crave continuous rest. Bury me, dearest John, beneath the decaying counter of some merchant who does not advertise.
