Public Notice

LEGAL NOTICE Magone Project 30-Day Scoping

The Blue Mountain Ranger District of the Malheur National Forest is initiating the 30-day scoping period for the Magone Project. The proposed action includes silviculture treatments, prescribed burning, road activities, recreation opportunity improvements, and Magone Lake restoration activities within the approximately 27,000 acre project planning area. The overall purpose of this project is to restore forest resiliency by reestablishing and restoring forest structure and pattern, vegetation composition and diversity, and riparian communities to conditions that are more resilient to natural disturbance processes. These actions are proposed on the Blue Mountain Ranger District approximately 7 miles north of John Day in Grant County, Oregon, within the Grub Creek and East Fork Beech Creek subwatersheds that drain into the Upper John Day River. The legal description is: T11S, R31E, sections 25-29, 32-36; T11S, R32E, sec. 30-32; T12S, R31E, sec. 1-5, 8-12, 13-15, 17-24; T12S, R32E, sec., 5-11, 15-20, W.M.

The scoping package with the details of the proposed action can be accessed on the Forest Service website at: <http://www.fs.usda.gov/projects/malheur/landmanagement/projects>. For further information, contact Sasha Fertig (Planner) by phone at 541-575-3061 or email at sashafertig@fs.fed.us or Randy Kyes (Planner) at 541-575-3058 or rkyes@fs.fed.us.

The Blue Mountain Ranger District (BMRD) will be holding an open house on Tuesday February 24, 2015. The meeting is scheduled for 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at the Grant County Regional Airport, 720 Airport Road, John Day, OR 97845. Participants will have the opportunity to contribute information, ideas, or concerns and discuss the project with members of the project's interdisciplinary team. This will be a joint meeting where the BMRD will also be sharing information about the Camp Lick Project. Those that are unable to attend but wish to make comments please see below on how to submit comments.

The comment period will begin when the Notice of Intent (NOI) to prepare an environmental impact statement is published in the Federal Register. The publication date is anticipated to be February 16, 2014; therefore, to be most useful, comments on this proposed action should be received by the Blue Mountain Ranger District on or before March 19, 2014. The exact publication date in the Federal Register can be obtained by checking the Federal Register (<http://www.archives.gov/federal-register/index.html>) or the Forest's website (see above) for the exact date that the NOI is published. The publication date in the Federal Register is the exclusive means for calculating the scoping period for this proposal. Those wishing to comment should not rely on dates or timeframe information provided by any other source.

Written comments concerning the project may be submitted using the following methods: Postal mail or hand delivery: Blue Mountain Ranger District, c/o Sasha Fertig, 431 Patterson Bridge Road / P.O. Box 909, John Day, OR 97845 (if hand delivering, submit during business hours, 8:00am to 4:30pm, Monday through Friday, excluding holidays); e-mail message: comments-pacificnorthwest-malheur-bluemountain@fs.fed.us; fax: 541-575-3319.

Written comments shall include your name, address, and (if possible) telephone number; organization represented if any, title of document on which the comment is being submitted, and specific facts or comments along with supporting reasons that you believe the Responsible Official should consider in reaching a decision; and your signature. For objection eligibility each individual or representative from each entity must either sign the comments or verify identity upon request. In cases using an electronic message, a scanned signature is one way to provide verification.

Comments received in response to this solicitation, including names and addresses of those who comment, will be considered part of the public record on this proposed action and will be available for public inspection. Comments submitted anonymously will be accepted and considered. Additionally, pursuant to 7 CFR 1.27 (d), any person may request the agency to withhold a submission from the public record by showing how the Freedom of Information (FOIA) permits such confidentiality. Requests for confidentiality may be granted in only very limited circumstances.
