Love blooms on wall

Blue Mountain Eagle

CANYON CITY – Some people wear their hearts on their sleeves – but others are putting them on the wall instead, as Valentine's Day approaches this Saturday.

The Wall of Love is up at Station 62 in Canyon City, where a Valentine-making party drew a group of creative youngsters last Saturday. The ongoing event is a fundraiser for New Hope for Eastern Oregon Animals, put on by the Grant County committee.

The wall will remain up into this weekend, and people can still visit, contribute to New Hope and post their heart-felt messages. The event will wrap up Saturday, when the organizers also will announce the winner of a Queen of Hearts/Knave of Hearts contest.

Legion dinner honors trio of long-time volunteers

Blue Mountain Eagle

JOHN DAY – Three long-time members of the American Legion Auxiliary will be honored Monday night, Feb. 16, at a potluck dinner held by Ellis Tracy Unit 77 in John Day.

The honorees are:
• Ruth Harris, a member since 1983. She has been active in the Auxiliary, holding several offices in recent years.
• JoAnn Johnson, a member since 1946, now living at Elderberry House. With the longest tenure in the group, she also has held many offices.

• Evelyn Ogilvie, a member since 1954. She is a past state president and has held offices at the state and national levels.

Organizers said they are grateful for the service of all three.

The event starts at 6:30 p.m., at the American Legion hall.

Ham, bread and potatoes will be provided. People are invited to bring a side, salad or dessert.

A MAN WAKES UP in the morning after sleeping on... an advertised bed, in advertised pajamas.

He will bathe in an ADVERTISED TUB, shave with an ADVERTISED RAZOR, have a breakfast of ADVERTISED JUICE, cereal and toast, toasted in an ADVERTISED TOASTER, put on ADVERTISED CLOTHES and glance at his ADVERTISED WATCH. He'll ride to work in his ADVERTISED CAR, sit at an ADVERTISED DESK and write with an ADVERTISED PEN. Yet this person hesitates to advertise, saying that advertising doesn't pay. Finally, when his non-advertised business is going under, HE'LL ADVERTISE IT FOR SALE. Then it's too late.

AND THEY SAY ADVERTISING DOESN'T WORK? DON'T MAKE THIS SAME MISTAKE

Advertising is an investment, not an expense. Think about it!
