pears, taco soup with cheese, fried spuds, corn bread and a very moist chocolate cake with a yummy topping.

The Blue Mountain Care Center ladies – Lorna and Brandi – brought Dorothy Blasing, Lois Hill, Dollina Humphreys, Robert Ridell, and Gerry Pearl.

We went to the Ground Hog Day supper on Monday, Feb. 2. Saw lots of people who could come to senior dinner ... Then on Thursday, we went to Baker and got good news about Derrol's dizziness: PT guy is pretty sure that the crystals in the inner ear are where they are supposed to be. The sensations that Derrol has now are coming from a body that has to be retrained with eye and balance exercises. Seems to be working. PTL.

In other news, the final word has come that son No. 2 will get the keys to their new house before Valentine's Day. Now that's a present and a half, huh? Laurel is packing like mad.

An advance notice: there will be an Evening of Entertainment sponsored by Talents and Treasures in April. Strings & Beyond are practicing diligently. And the ensemble is working on the Easter presentation. It will be different. Then in June will be a very interesting presentation at the Canyon City Cemetery – and I'm not referring to why you usually go to the cemetery. So watch for these announcements so you can mark your calendars accordingly.

MONUMENT – So, I have a confession to make ... I am not a very organized person and I am a fly-by-the-seat-of-my-pants type person as well. Yeah, I put on a pretty good façade and fooled you all!

The reason I am confessing this is because for the life of me, I can't seem to recall where my paper with all the info written about the events of last week's senior lunch. So I apologize in advance if I couldn't recall all the info and miss a few items. I've learned my lesson though, I will now carry a notebook and make sure my husband knows exactly where it is.

Our greeters last week for our lunch were Bob Blakeslee, Bodean Anderson, and Marva Walker. Bob led the Flag Salute and we had a special guest, the Cowboy Chaplain, who blessed the meal and his lovely wife Sandy accompanied him.

We also had Donna Campbell's sister and brother-in-law join us for lunch.

We had a great meal of open-faced roast beef sandwiches with mashed potatoes and gravy. Along with that we had carrots and cake. Our hardworking cooks were Terry Cade and Carrie Jewell.

We had about 47 attendees and three takeouts. Jimmy Cole won the free meal and Bob Yukawa won the Len's card. I'm sorry but I couldn't remember who won the Chester's gift card. If you want to get out and come out for a little drive and meet some new folks, we'd love to have you join us for lunch! Monument Senior Center lunch on Tuesdays at 12 noon.

This weather sure has gotten me confused if I wasn't already. I can't make out what to put on half the time before I go outside. I also am wondering if we should trim and prune our trees? I have so much to learn living out here.

One of the new things I've learned is canning fruit. That sure was a long day and, boy, it was a lot of work! I'm a lover of the good ol' slow cooker as well. Having a nice meal all ready to eat after coming in from doing chores is awesome.

One thing I do miss is my Korean food, my mommy's cooking. I try to make some food that I've got, but it just isn't the same. Home cooked food by your mother is the best. Appreciate the time you have with your parents and enjoy a meal together.

"Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honour thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise) That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth." – Ephesians 6:1-3

JOHN DAY – Before I get into the news I would like to give a great big heartfelt thank you to Ron Dowse for covering the news for me the last two weeks. Thanks to him I got to go out of town and visit with several of my children and grandchildren. Thanks again, Ron.

Monday, Feb. 2, we had beef hash, fruited Jell-O, Judy's great homemade biscuits and topped it off with homemade cookies for dessert. Greeting us at the desk were Billie Bullard and Susan Fowle.

Kris Labhart and Karen Bailey delivered 18 meals and then eight frozen meals for shut-ins. Our servers today were from Blue Mountain Hospital Auxiliary. Karen led the flag salute and Ron Dowse asked the blessing.

Ron also did the announcing as Veanne was home with the flu. All the announcements were for this week so will be over by the time you read this, so I won't bore you.

We had a newcomer today, Lisa Miller, here with Gail Heising. Welcome, Lisa.

Kris Labhart won the Len's gift certificate and Jean Willey won the free meal.

On Thursday, Feb. 5, we had pork chops, mashed potatoes, gravy, ambrosia salad, Normandy blend veggies, rolls and then topped it off with birthday cake, donated by Grant County Hospice and Driskell Chapel. It was baked by Chester's bakery.

At the desk were Susan Fowle and Billy Bullard. Jim Spell delivered meals locally and our new cook, Shay, delivered to Mt. Vernon. Together they delivered 21 meals.

The entree was furnished by Tootie Cemazanu in memory of her late husband, Jim. Dennis Reynolds led the flag salute and Julie Reynolds asked the blessing. Our servers were from St. Thomas Episcopal Church.

Don Caldwell did the announcing as Veanne was still off sick. Get well soon, Veanne.

Buz Harris won the Chester's gift certificate, and Jan Ellison won the lunch for two at Valley View.

This Thursday, Feb. 12, we will have chicken cordon bleu and next Monday, Feb. 16, seafood fettuccini. Come join us. Then stay to play bingo. Bingo on Feb. 5 had about 20 players and pretty good pots, plus lots of fun, fellowship, and snacks.

"He leadeth me! O blessed thought! O words with heavenly comfort frought, Whate'r I do, where'er I be, Still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me." – Hymn by Joseph Gilmore
