

THIS IS the PLACE for Adventurous Souls

A wonderland of recreating pleasures. Discover a little piece of heaven nestled in the foothills of the Blue Mountains - a rural, rustic setting of dynamic landscapes, dramatic geologic formations, sagebrush and juniper-dotted slopes that command the spirit to stop for a moment and reflect.

Camp, spend the day hiking or biking diverse trails, play in the forest, fish, float or gold-pan in the pristine John Day River. This is gold and cattle country, where people are authentic and connected to the history of this land. Visit one of the five museums and indulge in the rich cultural heritage of Eastern Oregon.

Wide open spaces, fresh air, natural wonders and abundant wildlife. What are you waiting for?
