USDA Forest Service Malheur National Forest Grant, Baker, Harney, Malheur, and Crook Counties, Oregon Site-Specific Invasive Plant Treatment Project

Forest Supervisor Steven Beverlin has released the Final Environmental Impact Statement (FEIS) for the Malheur National Forest Site-Specific Invasive Plant Treatment Project with the decision to select Alternative B documented in the Draft Record of Decision (ROD). Alternative B approves the integrated invasive plant treatments throughout the Forest, including wilderness. Alternative B allows for a wider variety of herbicides to be used on the Forest and includes an updated "Early Detection and Rapid Response" process that will provide a more timely and effective response to invasive plants found in any given year. Alternative B also amends the Malheur Land and Resource Management Plan (Forest Plan), adding the use of aminopyralid to the list of acceptable herbicides. All treatments will be done in a manner that minimizes risk of adverse effects. Alternative B is the most cost-effective of the alternatives. The FEIS, draft ROD and other project information are available on the Forest's website at: <http://www.fs.usda.gov/projects/malheur/landmanagement/projects>, at the Supervisor's Office in John Day; and from the Forest Project Coordinator (contact information below). The Forest's website is the primary source of information about the project. Pursuant to 36 CFR 218.7, the draft record of decision on this project is subject to pre-decisional objection under 36 CFR 218, subparts A and B. Only those who have submitted timely, specific, written comments may file an objection (36 CFR 218.5.). Objections, including attachments, must be filed within 45 days from the publication of this legal notice. Those with standing to object should not rely upon dates or timeframe information provided by any other source. It is the objector's responsibility to ensure timely filing of a written objection with the reviewing officer pursuant to 36 CFR 218.9. All objections are available for public inspection during and after the objection process. Objections on this FEIS may be submitted by e-mail, letter, telephone, fax, or office visit. Objections should include a valid e-mail or mailing address. Electronic objections must be in e-mail message, text, .doc, .rtf, or .pdf format, and should go to the Objection Reviewing Officer: objections-pnw-regional-office@fs.fed.us with "Malheur National Forest Site-Specific Invasive Plant Treatment Project" in the subject line. The following address should be used for objections sent by regular mail: Objection Reviewing Officer, USDA Forest Service, Pacific Northwest Region, Pacific Northwest Region, USDA Forest Service, Attn: 1570 Appeals and Objections, PO Box 3623, Portland, OR 97208-3623. Office hours for submitting hand-delivered comments are 8:00 am - 4:30 pm Monday through Friday, excluding holidays. Objections can be faxed to the Objection Reviewing Officer, Attn: 1570 Objections at (503)-808-2339. The fax coversheet must include a subject line with "Malheur National Forest Site-Specific Invasive Plant Treatment Project" and should specify the number of pages being submitted. For more information, contact Joe Rausch at 541-575-3141.
