Thomas Episcopal Church. Mike Cosgrove led the flag salute, and Julie Reynolds asked the blessing, leading us in The Lord's Prayer.

Don Caldwell did the announcing since Veanne was out of town. He announced the paintings on the wall were from the collection of Ila North, provided by Linda Stoltz. Our cooks, Shay and Lisa, are now doing catering for private parties at the Center. For more information, call 541-575-1825.

Bob and Leone Meador were back with us after over six months absence while they were in Southern Nevada. Glad to see them back. Also, Nancy Elliott was with us again after having knee surgery. Good to see you also. The card players joined us again, too, so we had a large crowd.

There were some special drawings for vases of flowers. Winners were Marianne Morris for the most children - six, myself for the most grandchildren - 52, Nancy Elliott for the youngest child, and Geri Pasco got two - one for having the oldest child and one for being the oldest mom present, at 95 years young.

Joe Schmidt won the Chester's Thriftway gift card, and Edie Komning won the lunch-for-two at Valley View.

On Thursday, May 14, we will have chicken a la king with biscuits, and Monday, May 18, we will have macaroni and cheese with bratwurst.

John 14:2 "In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I so to prepare a place for you."

PRAIRIE CITY - We had a fabulous Easter dinner and a fantastic April birthday dinner, and for our Mother's Day dinner on May 6, oh my, the cooks did it again. We had 82 names on the registration book. Wow! We had to set another table for the Campbell clan. That's OK. We still had one more we could have used. Hope all the mothers felt appreciated by the meal. I sure did.

Buzz led the flag salute, and Bob Meador asked the blessing. Good to have him and Leone back from their winter in Nevada. Our volunteer servers included Sandi Rennels, JoAnn Phippen and Pam Howard. Several pitched in and helped serve the coffee, tea and milk.

The gift certificate from Prairie Hardware & Gifts went to Vera Clark. Yogi Harris won the certificate from Java Jungle. Sure is fun to win something, isn't it? Thanks to our donors for this pleasure.

At this special meal we had juice, green salad, juicy corn on the cob, strawberries, mashed potatoes and gravy, pork loin, tomato/red onion bread, and a cinnamon roll for dessert. I know the corn was juicy because I got hit with some liquid when Derrol bit into his piece. Quite a surprise. The Blue Mountain Care Center ladies, Lorna and Jonie, brought Dorothy Blasing, Lois Hill, Eula Thompson, Dollina Humphreys and Ralph Wilson.

Billy Drinkwater made it back again. He and Dorothy had to have a face-to-face meeting. They've known each other since the late 40s, so they have a lot to discuss.

I mentioned the Campbell clan. Rosa Lee Campbell has moved back to our fair city and her brother Bill, a cousin from Kentucky, and her mother came along to dinner. I knew Bill in the 60s when he was about 5-feet tall. My, did he grow! Took a photo to send to my brother, Frank, in Madras.

Another guest was the food service inspector. But he wasn't here to make an inspection. He just came to eat. That's a pretty good recommendation, huh?

The youngest granddaughter had a birthday and I found an old doll baby buggy in a second-hand store. It's so old, there's no plastic on it. But the fabric was rotted. So, the project of the week was to get the fabric off, use it as a pattern to make a new 'bed', paint the metal frame, and somehow attach the new fabric. Oh, yes, the rubber on the wheels was all gone, too. So I asked Boyd Britton what to do. "Use a piece of bungee cord cut on a diagonal and super glue the ends." Okay. That should be interesting. Will let you know how it all turned out.

Proverbs 31:22 "She makes coverings for her bed."

MONUMENT - We had some sad news. Carolyn Trujillo, who once wrote the Monument seniors news, died May 3. There is no service planned. Many people loved her columns.

Another news item for Monument is that Betty Breeding suffered a stroke on May 6. She's now in Bend, doing well and on the road to recovery. She suffered a bit of paralysis on her right side, and will need physical therapy. She's able to talk and her cognitive functions are intact. We are all thankful she is still with us, and her church family and the community are praying for a speedy recovery.

My family and I call her Ms. Betty, "The Hugger" because that's what she loves to do. Get well soon, Ms. Betty, and come home.

For May 5 - it was Cinco de Mayo - we had a meal fitting for the Mexican holiday: chicken enchiladas, refried beans, salad, and blueberry cake for dessert. We appreciate our cooks, Terry Cade and Carrie Jewell, for all their hard work in cooking and feeding us. Bob Blakeslee, Bodean Anderson and Marva Walker were our greeters. Bob led the flag salute, and Bodean prayed the blessing of our meal. Bruce Kramer won the Chester's Thriftway gift card, Debbie Reid won the Len's Drug gift card and Karen Stubblefield won a free meal. We had 36 guests and nine take-outs.

There was a short board meeting after the lunch.

Hope everyone had a nice time celebrating Mother's Day. I hope I make a positive impact on my children. We moms have such an important role, helping shape their precious hearts and character.

Next month is Father's Day, and we also are thankful for dads and their influence.

Proverbs 31:25-28 "The Virtuous Woman: Strength and honour are her clothing; And she shall rejoice in time to come. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; And in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household, And eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; Her husband also, and he praiseth her."
