Fishing derby coming Saturday

By Angel Carpenter
Blue Mountain Eagle

PRAIRIE CITY – Kids can catch some free fun at a fishing derby from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday at McHaley Pond in Prairie City. The event is offered by the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife, and Malheur National Forest.

The derby offers children a chance to fish and win prizes within their age group. Adults also are welcome to fish after the kids' derby wraps up at noon.

There also will be watershed science- and fisheries-themed kids activities and games. A barbecue lunch will be provided.

The event is free and no license is required; staff will be on hand to assist with fishing.

"CTWS works to conserve and enhance watershed health and salmon habitat in the John Day Basin, and is pleased to be able to give back to the local community by hosting this event," said Emily Davis, monitoring biologist at the Forrest Conservation Area.

For questions, contact Davis at 541-777-2831.

Eastern Oregon Realty's Principal Broker, Jerry Franklin, is happy to announce the addition of Traci Frazier to its Professional Team of agents.

Traci was raised in Prairie City. She married Dave Frazier in 1988.

They have 3 children, whom she homeschooled. Mariah, 20, who will be a senior at Pensacola Christian College; Joshua, 19, who graduated in 2014; and Ginni, 16, who will be a Junior this fall. The family are members of Prairie Baptist Church and are very active with Awana and youth activities. Traci is very excited about her new career and wants everyone to know that if they are thinking of buying or selling real estate to keep her in mind. She can be contacted at the office at 541-575-2121 or her cell: 541-620-0925.

Welcome to the team Traci!

Go for the gold – and the fun – in Canyon City

Pies, fast draw, parade, more on tap at '62 Days

By Cheryl Hoefler

CANYON CITY – The Whiskey Gulch Gang has a golden line-up of fun planned for this Friday and Saturday in the annual '62 Days Celebration.

Saturday's events kick off with breakfast at 7 a.m., sponsored by the Grant County Chapter of New Hope for Eastern Oregon Animals; McKalee's Walk and Jog, to benefit the March of Dimes; and the 3.1-mile Gold Rush Run and Walk. More details on the run are on A10.

The parade starts at 11 a.m., with entries lining up at 10 a.m. at Humbolt Elementary. The theme is "Gold Dust or Bust," and the grand marshals are Prairie City ranchers Del and Mary Raymond.

Not only have the Raymonds been longtime supporters of '62 Days, Del has provided his stagecoach chauffeuring services for grand marshals at parades and other occasions throughout the county for many years.

Mary said her husband likes to drive horses and has been doing it since his youth.

The Raymonds have lived in Prairie City for 27 years. The family includes two daughters, a son, three grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

As grand marshals, the Raymonds will still be in the driver's seat, waving to the crowd from a Studebaker buggy they own.

Other '62 Days activities include a Cowboy Fast Draw demonstration, several contests, kids games, food and craft vendors, and the always popular "Hanging of Berry Wey" live on the rugged streets of Canyon City.

Plenty of food will be available throughout the day too. There will be a barbecue from noon-3 p.m., and an old-fashioned pie social at St. Thomas Episcopal Church in the afternoon Saturday.

An old-fashioned melodrama will be at 7 p.m. in Canyon City Community Hall.

Sels Brewery will be open both Friday and Saturday nights with live music by The Area.

The festival commemorates the discovery of gold on June 8, 1862, near Canyon City. Organized by the Whiskey Gulch Gang, the event has been running annually since 1922.

EDITOR WANTED

Join Our Team!

Some Western regions are epicenters of change. Our beautiful Oregon community is one of those. The territory served by the Blue Mountain Eagle frequently juggles forest health, logging, public lands grazing, water supply, wildlife habitat improvements and wildfire resilience.

For a journalist who thrives on the new story of the West, becoming Editor of the Eagle is an excellent opportunity. Our work place offers year-round recreational opportunities, including backpacking, camping, fishing, hunting, snowmobiling and horseback riding.

Part of a family-owned Oregon media company, the Blue Mountain Eagle is located in John Day, Oregon, just 3 hours from Bend and Pendleton. There is a small-town lifestyle and the news opportunities are varied and challenging. The community is at the center of an evolving natural resource restoration economy, which gains statewide and even national attention.

The Eagle, seeks an energetic, creative, outgoing and hard-working Editor. This is your opportunity to join a company that believes in community journalism. The Eagle is the oldest (146 years) weekly newspaper in Eastern Oregon and is part of EO Media Group, an award-winning and innovative news organization with active owners.

We seek a journalist who is passionate about local news, excited about the opportunity to publish in print, on line and with social media. You'll manage and mentor two newsroom employees and work with a professional page design team. Your journalistic integrity is a must; leadership, budgeting, multi-media and mentoring experience are a plus. This is a hands-on position that edits and writes stories; takes photos; posts daily to our web site; and uses social media to engage readers. Along with the Eagle's Publisher, you will need to be involved in the community.

Candidates with an education in journalism or a related field, plus at least 5 years of progressive newspaper leadership experience should send resume and letter of interest to EO Media Group, PO Box 2048, Salem, OR 97308-2048, by fax to 503-371-2935 or email hr@eomediagroup.com.

Thank You

We are grateful for the loving care that our Doris received at Valley View throughout her years with them. The caregivers, staff and residents became her family, and the facility became her home. Her life at Valley View became our life as we grew familiar with these wonderful people who attended to Doris on a 24-7 basis. To each of the caregivers, we would like you to know how amazing and valuable you are. Your caring attitude has not gone unnoticed and to the great staff whose primary focus was towards the well-being of Doris. "You are stars!"

And a big Thank You to Hospice, who came to assist during this end of life process. We appreciate the comfort given, not only to Doris, but to family in the final weeks of her life. As family, we noticed the team work between Valley View and Hospice whose foremost concern was to make the last days of Doris' life as comfortable and pain free as possible and treated her with dignity in the process.

God bless you all! We can never thank you enough for your hearts that cared through your hands in assisting Doris in all her days, weeks, months and years in your care.
