

BULL

"I was really pleased with the show, and we hope to bring them back," said fair board member Heather Rookstool.

"I really want to thank our sponsors for their support of this event and the Blue Mountain Hospital Ambulance Crew and the Sheriff's Department for their volunteers," said fairgrounds manager Mary Weaver.

Rookstool said that although the feedback has been positive, the number of people attending was down this year – from 1,100 last year to 850 this year – possibly due to some conflicting events, including the Sisters Rodeo and the Oregon High School Rodeo Finals in Prineville.

The Challenge tour is also scheduled for Bums this weekend.

Rookstool said the board welcomes suggestions.

"If the community wants us to keep bringing this, we've got to show up," she said.
