JOHN DAY – Members of the John Day Elks Lodge No. 1824 held their 2015 Classic Car Cruise-In on a sunny Saturday, June 13.

Although there were fewer entrants than usual, the participants still showed their gleaming vehicles with pride.

Winning the coveted People's Choice award was Trevor Hamsher of John Day with his orange, Dukes of Hazard-style 1970 Dodge Charger.

Brent Drury of Hines showed a 1931 dark red Chevrolet four-door sedan, winning the 30s category.

Drury noted that most of the body on the vehicle is made of wood with a thin layer of steel nailed to it.

New to the event were the Burke brothers, Levi and John Jr., showing their junior dragsters. John also had his 1980 Chevy El Camino on display. The event included a swap meet and flea market, and volunteers were at the grill, cooking up burgers with onion and pepper relish.

Committee chairman Dennis Flippence expressed his appreciation for committee volunteers, including Carl Lino, Aileen and Mark Womer, Vern and Veronica Flanery, Linda Cook and Janel Parker, and Elks Exhaulted Ruler Tom Winters who was also on hand to help.

He added that several businesses donated prizes to the Wheel of Fortune fund-raiser game.

Plaques were awarded to the winners of the car show.

Car show results:
30s and older: Brent Drury '31 Chevrolet four-door sedan
60s: Tony Johns '67 Camaro
70s: Karolis Bruzas, '77 Chevy Corvette
Truck: Jerry Bird, '36 Ford pickup
Special classification: Levi Burke, junior dragster
80s and newer: John Burke Jr, 1980 Chevy El Camino
People's Choice: Trevor Hamsher, 1970 Dodge Charger

Fishy video released

Blue Mountain Eagle

SALEM – Just in time for summer fishing, the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife has introduced a new video series to help people learn to fish for trout.

The series, sponsored by ODFW and starring professional guide Cody Herman of Day One Outdoors, takes the beginning angler from picking out the proper gear at the local sporting goods store, to cleaning and cooking their catch. Anglers will learn easy, techniques for attaching tackle and bait, casting, and what to do when a fish bites.

Links to the video series, and other resources about how and where to fish in Oregon, can be found on the Learn to Fish page of the ODFW website.

group to the Thomas Condon Paleontology Center at the John Day Fossil Beds National Monument.

Proceeds from Fiedor's tour benefited the Juniper Arts Council.

Rally proceeds will benefit several local nonprofits, and vendors on-site at the fairgrounds are given a small "financial perk," Bennett said.

This year's turnout was about 600 strong.

Bennett said riders came from all over the U.S., including California, Washington and Idaho, and some were from Cantonal Monument.

"The roads are nice and the people are welcoming and friendly," he said. "It's a nice getaway with out having to go far."

EDITOR WANTED

Join Our Team!

Some Western regions are epicenters of change. Our beautiful Oregon community is one of those. The territory served by the Blue Mountain Eagle frequently juggles forest health, logging, public lands grazing, water supply, wildlife habitat improvements and wildfire resilience.

For a journalist who thrives on the new story of the West, becoming Editor of the Eagle is an excellent opportunity. Our work place offers year-round recreational opportunities, including backpacking, camping, fishing, hunting, snowmobiling and horseback riding.

Part of a family-owned Oregon media company, the Blue Mountain Eagle is located in John Day, Oregon, just 3 hours from Bend and Pendleton. There is a small-town lifestyle and the news opportunities are varied and challenging. The community is at the center of an evolving natural resource restoration economy, which gains statewide and even national attention.

The Eagle, seeks an energetic, creative, outgoing and hard-working Editor. This is your opportunity to join a company that believes in community journalism. The Eagle is the oldest (146 years) weekly newspaper in Eastern Oregon and is part of EO Media Group, an award-winning and innovative news organization with active owners.

We seek a journalist who is passionate about local news, excited about the opportunity to publish in print, on line and with social media. You'll manage and mentor two newsroom employees and work with a professional page design team. Your journalistic integrity is a must; leadership, budgeting, multi-media and mentoring experience are a plus. This is a hands-on position that edits and writes stories; takes photos; posts daily to our web site; and uses social media to engage readers. Along with the Eagle's Publisher, you will need to be involved in the community.

Candidates with an education in journalism or a related field, plus at least 5 years of progressive newspaper leadership experience should send resume and letter of interest to EO Media Group, PO Box 2048, Salem, OR 97308-2048, by fax to 503-371-2935 or email hr@eomediagroup.com.
