SATURDAY, JULY 4

Fourth of July festivities

• Dayville, Monument and Prairie City
Three Grant County communities are preparing a bang-up good time for this year's Fourth of July celebration. All three will offer parades, contests, family activities, plenty of food and, of course, fireworks. Dayville's celebration is a three-day event. Check out the article on Page A1 for full schedules and details on all the activities.

THURSDAY, JULY 9

MNF open house

• 5-7 p.m., Supervisor's office, John Day
All are welcome to the informational open house to discuss wildland fire suppression on the Malheur National Forest. MNF officials will be on hand to answer questions and provide information on long-term fire situations, seasonal outlooks, aviation, dispatch and initial attack, and where to get updates as fire season kicks up. Smokey Bear will also be on hand to help youth learn how to prevent wildfires. The Supervisor's office is at 431 Patterson Bridge Rd. For more information, visit www.fs.usda.gov/malheur or call 541-575-3000.

Local talent displayed 'al fresco'

JOHN DAY – Skies were blue last Saturday with perfect weather for an outdoor art show.

Artist and leather craftsman Clair Kehrborg of John Day helped organize the event held at the Grant County Chamber of Commerce in John Day.

"Overall we were pleased with the result," she said. "A lot of people stopped by, and there were some really pretty paintings there."

Volunteer Patricia Baehr-Ross said this is the first time their loose-knit group of artists has held an outdoor art exhibition.

"We're testing the waters for the summer months," she said.

She added it worked well having the Saturday Farmers Market across the street.

"The people who showed up to see it enjoyed it," she said.

An art walk is next on their list of summer planning, in the works.

The artists' next monthly meeting is set for 11 a.m. Thursday, July 9, at Station 62's coffee shop in Canyon City, and other artists are welcome to join them, Baehr-Ross said.

For more information, contact Baehr-Ross at 541-932-4856.

Zoey the dog explores last Saturday's outdoor art display, along with Joan Rohm and Zuri Rohm.

Looking at the art display outside the Grant County Chamber of Commerce are Bill Geinger of Tacoma, Wash., Linda Roether of John Day and, in back, Julie Gibbs of Boise and Sandy Lowe of Union.

Carter awarded scholarship

Blue Mountain Eagle

SENECA – This year's Seneca Logger Memorial Scholarship has been awarded to 2015 Grant Union Junior-Senior High School graduate Jerry Carter of Bear Valley.

The award for $1,000 was presented to Carter during the June 6 graduation ceremony at Grant Union.

Carter was selected based on his high level of academic achievement, involvement and achievements in extra-curricular activities – both school-sponsored and community – and leadership skills.

Jerry Carter

At Grant Union, he was active in student council, FFA, National Honor Society, baseball and football, and was class salutatorian.

He was a member of the 4-H Izee Livestock Club and worked with youth outreach in Awana.

He attended Seneca School for his elementary education.

Carter plans to attend Oregon State University in Corvallis, where he will major in agriculture/business.

To be eligible for the scholarship, students must have attended Seneca School for at least two years and have a minimum cumulative 3.5 GPA.

EDITOR WANTED

Join Our Team!

Some Western regions are epicenters of change. Our beautiful Oregon community is one of those. The territory served by the Blue Mountain Eagle frequently juggles forest health, logging, public lands grazing, water supply, wildlife habitat improvements and wildfire resilience.

For a journalist who thrives on the new story of the West, becoming Editor of the Eagle is an excellent opportunity. Our work place offers year-round recreational opportunities, including backpacking, camping, fishing, hunting, snowmobiling and horseback riding.

Part of a family-owned Oregon media company, the Blue Mountain Eagle is located in John Day, Oregon, just 3 hours from Bend and Pendleton. There is a small-town lifestyle and the news opportunities are varied and challenging. The community is at the center of an evolving natural resource restoration economy, which gains statewide and even national attention.

The Eagle, seeks an energetic, creative, outgoing and hard-working Editor. This is your opportunity to join a company that believes in community journalism. The Eagle is the oldest (146 years) weekly newspaper in Eastern Oregon and is part of EO Media Group, an award-winning and innovative news organization with active owners.

We seek a journalist who is passionate about local news, excited about the opportunity to publish in print, online and with social media. You'll manage and mentor two newsroom employees and work with a professional page design team. Your journalistic integrity is a must; leadership, budgeting, multi-media and mentoring experience are a plus. This is a hands-on position that edits and writes stories; takes photos; posts daily to our website; and uses social media to engage readers. Along with the Eagle's Publisher, you will need to be involved in the community.

Candidates with an education in journalism or a related field, plus at least 5 years of progressive newspaper leadership experience should send resume and letter of interest to EO Media Group, PO Box 2048, Salem, OR 97308-2048, by fax to 503-371-2935 or email hr@eomediagroup.com.
