

SHERRY CRAIG-MILLER

I came to Grant County in 1992 and instantly fell in love with Fox. I was fortunate enough to have a friend, Dr. Phil Gerstner from Albany who let me move into a cabin on his ranch that had no running water, electricity or indoor plumbing. I loved it. Right smack dab in the middle of 5000 acres. I worked for my rent and opened a salon in Fox.

At that time, I was getting to go back to the ranching way of life that I grew up with in Western Colorado as a young girl. I had again found my roots.

Fifteen years ago, I met my husband, Dave Pasko, who tells everyone, "He came to Fox to get a haircut and never left!" We've been married ever since. In 2001, I also began a catering business along with my hairdressing, which became much more busy than I ever dreamed. Last year, I finally gave in and sold the business to Stephanie Coleman, who is just working her back-side off. I think she is pushing pins into a voodoo doll!!!

I served in many capacities on the Oregon Hairdressing Association. ie; Affiliate President, State President, all the vice chairs and The Oregon Hair Fashion Committee. Won many Hairstyling Competitions and was a Judge for many years. All of this before moving here.

I still return to Albany every five weeks and work for a week on my 45 years of clients.

Since living in Grant County, I have been on the Chamber of Commerce Board and have volunteered for many community activities. I am now a director on the Grant County Fair Board. I was fortunate enough this year to attend the Oregon Fair Association State Convention with Steve Parsons. It was a very enlightening adventure. Last year was my first time to work the Hospitality Booth at the Rodeo during Fair. It was a great opportunity to meet all the contestants and feed them. I will do that again this year.

Looking forward to seeing and participating in a successful Grant County Fair.

LUCAS MOORE

My name is Lucas Moore, I am a rancher in Bear Valley. I have been a resident of Grant County my whole life. My wife and I have two daughters and are expecting our third. All will probably have something to do with the fair in their lives and that is why I became a member of the Grant County Fair Board in November 2014. To help the Grant County Fair stay one of our main attractions and to be involved in our community, not only for my kids, but for the youth of Grant County.

MARY WEAVER

I have been blessed by the family and community support that I had had over this past year. This will be my 5th fair as your Fair Manager and it has been an adventure every year. I look forward to seeing all your smiling faces at OUR Grant County Fair.

My husband, Jim, dedicated many weeks to helping Dusty Williams create a warm and friendly office space to help make my job easier. I am in the Pavilion Office... no more running back and forth to Keerins Hall.

I am hoping that all 5 of my grandchildren will come and enjoy the rides so that I can see just how much the fair means to our youth. I will even have two with animals in the barns. So excited...

DUSTY WILLIAMS

GRANT COUNTY FAIR GROUNDSKEEPER

I have lived in Grant County for 22 years and raised our 2 boys, Cody and Lane, here. I married my high school sweetheart, Stephanie Williams. She works at Trinagle Oil. My hobbies are hunting, fishing, chasing big buck and bulls, to catching steelhead and salmon. This is what I love to do in this great place that we live.

I have been working at the fair-grounds for over a year now and we have made a lot of improvements. I believe with the support of fair management, The Grant County Fairboard, County Court and the people of Grant County, we can make OUR County Fair better every year for our children and grandchildren to enjoy for years to come.

MINDY WINEGAR

I was born and raised in Grant County. I am married to Toby Winegar. Both of our families were some of the first settlers in Beautiful Grant County. We have 3 children and 2 granddaughters. We of course love all the outdoor activities Grant County has to offer.

After being at Len's for 16 years I decided to serve the community in another capacity & became a member of the Grant County Fair Team. I am excited to be part of the Grant County Fair. I enjoy working with all of our great sponsors and volunteers. I look forward to helping make the Grant County Fair the best.
