those huge zucchinis donated a few weeks ago. Fooled everybody. Sure was good. And lots of comments about a soup bowl made out of bread. Never had that before.

Found my problem: I am an analog person in a digital world. Anybody else?

Sept. 25 was our Alleluia celebration/concert/performance. We had over 80 in attendance and raised over $300 for the community center. Some had to leave early and missed some good stuff. Yes, it was two hours long. If you go to Gaither Vocal Band concert, be prepared for four hours.

Sept 26 found us in the Blue Mountain Hospital ER. Derrol lost his balance and crashed into the storm door on the back porch. He hit it so hard he pushed it past the jamb, and I couldn't get out to see how bad the situation was. He was on his feet with some abrasions, so carry on with getting the door unstuck. Had to remove a couple screws from the frame and it popped back to its normal position. When he was washing his abrasions, discovered there was a tennis-ball-sized area of fluid hanging from his left elbow. Dr. Gideonse - isn't that a great name? - was only able to remove three ccs of fluid. Hopefully the rest will be reabsorbed in the coming week.

Saw a man on his four-wheeler out in the field herding cows. The cow-dog was also riding on the four-wheeler, doing his thing. Okay.

Rev. 15:3,4 "... Great and marvelous are Your works, ... Just and true are Your ways ... For You alone are holy ... all nations shall come and worship before You ..."

Others in town have reported catching in the double digits. In fact, it seems everywhere you walk around Monument, there is the distinct smell and stink of skunk. Ha.

Revelation 12:11 "And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death."

JOHN DAY - On Sept. 21, we had approximately 30 diners present. Rick Rhinehart and Ray Rickard delivered 17 meals plus eight frozen dinners to shut-ins.

We had spinach tortellini soup, chicken wraps with spinach salad, Sun chips and melon fruit salad. For dessert, Lisa baked Pecan Sandies because it was National Pecan Sandies day. Veanne is always challenging Lisa and Shay with these "national whatever" days.

Susan Fowle and Margaret Glass greeted us at the desk. Ron Dowse led the flag salute, and Cathy Altnow asked the blessing. They then served us representing the First Christian Church.

All Veanne's announcements were for activities this week so too late to get them in the news. She extended a special thank you to Cathy Altnow for playing the piano for us before dinner.

Also, thank you to the anonymous donor of the watermelons.

Don Porter won the Len's Drug gift certificate, and Roberta Dowse won the free meal. Sept. 24 we had a fairly full house. We fed approximately 65 in-house diners, and there were 25 meals delivered plus four frozen ones to shut-ins. Jim Maple and David Turner did the deliveries, with the help of Shay Lewis. We had baked ham, macaroni and cheese, ginger-glazed carrots and French bread. For dessert, there was a choice of brownies or cherry turnovers.

Susan Fowle and Billie Bullard were at the front desk. Walt Hall led the flag salute, and Jim Maple asked the blessing. The United Methodist Thrift Shop furnished the entrée. Our servers were from St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

Ron Dowse did the announcing in Veanne's absence. He invited everyone to stay and play bingo after lunch. We had several guests and first-timers. Greetings to Bruce and Wanda Kaufman from Prairie City; Adele Wilson, who joined her mom and dad; the Ashbys; Dora Schock from Portland, who was a guest of Bonnie Hester; Becky and Bryan Lynch from John Day; and Eva Harris from up Canyon Creek.

Walt Hall won the Chester's Thriftway gift certificate, and Yvonne Majors won the lunch for two at Valley View. Thursday, Oct. 1, we will have pork chops with stuffing, mashed potatoes and gravy, corn, and for dessert, banana split crumb cake. The following Monday, Oct. 5, we will have smothered burritos.

Deuteronomy 6:5 "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength."

Doodlebugs begins fall art sessions

Blue Mountain Eagle

PRAIRIE CITY - Got a young art lover?

The fall session of Doodlebugs, a free art exploration time for young children, meets at 10:30 a.m. Wednesdays in the Youth Center on Front Street in Prairie City.

Upcoming dates are Oct. 7 and 21, Nov. 4 and 18, and Dec. 2 and 16.

Each group time starts with a story and/or a song, followed by open-ended art "projects" designed to build confidence, creativity and problem-solving skills. Doodlebugs is led by Lindsay Rausch of Prairie City.

Young singers are welcome!
