

Runners make strides in records

Team competes at Burns-Idlewild Meet Saturday

By Angel Carpenter
Blue Mountain Eagle

MILTON-FREEWATER – Grant Union cross country coach Sonna Smith said her boys varsity team is right on track.

The group took on competition at McLoughlin High School last Friday in Milton-Freewater.

“The course has a 600-meter hill at 2.5 kilometers that was aptly named ‘Gut Buster hill,’” she said.

Out of 40 boys varsity racers, Tanner Elliott placed 10th with 19:53; Sam Bentz, 18, 21:21; Bo Olson, 26, 22:21.

“For all of the athletes to get their season’s best time on the course shows that our training is right on track and they are making great improvements both physically and mentally in their racing,” Smith said.

The team travels to the Burns-Idlewild Meet on Saturday to compete at Devine Ridge Summit near Burns.

The Eagle/Angel Carpenter

Cassie Robertson of Prineville puts the ball during last weekend's Rally for the Cure golf scramble.

Contributed photo

Ladies at the Rally for the Cure prepare to release balloons with special messages at the John Day Golf Club.

GOLF

Continued from Page B1

Her team dressed up in shorts with matching fuschia leggings with the word “love” written on them, and wore matching T-shirts with the phrase, “Family gives me strength, Faith gives me hope.”

Ward said nine teams competed in the scramble last Saturday, and seven co-ed teams participated Sunday.

She noted the men enjoy competing, too, and some wear pink shirts.

The Sunday scramble was a 50-50 contest, and the winners donated their winnings back to the Rally.

“It was another opportunity to fight against cancer,” she said. “We always have a fabulous, crazy, fun time.”

A dessert auction was also held, and all funds raised are given to the Susan G. Komen Foundation.

The Donna Edmundson Memorial Award and a pink putter donated by the Foundation was given to Farrell for being the ninth person to sign up.

Farrell said Edmundson, a former Prairie City resident, lost her battle to cancer and since then Edmundson’s daughters and other family members honor her memory with the Rally for the Cure prize.

Janie Cole, who won closest to the pin, was awarded a golf bag. Other results were unavailable at press time.

Teaming up at the Rally for the Cure are Virginia Miller, Kathleen Lee and Kim Ward, all of Mt. Vernon, and Ward’s mom Gail Burton of Dallas.

The Eagle/Angel Carpenter

BREAKING NEWS ALERTS
myeaglenews.com/breakingnews

FACEBOOKERS:
Become an Eagle fan today!
Go to:
facebook.com/MyEagleNews

DAKOTA EMERSON

School: Monument
Grade: 12
Parents: Kristi Emerson and Dan Emerson

Sport: Football

What I like best about my sport: “I enjoy football for the physical aspect of the game. As a running back, I have to make quick decisions. I enjoy playing with my teammates.”

Coach’s Comment: “He is a senior who is stepping into a leadership role for the team, and he is a great competitor who works hard every practice and game.”

– Coach Nathaniel Ashley

Proud sponsor of Grant County athletes

100 E. Main • Stoplight in John Day • 541-792-0425

Rob Raschio of John Day gives his daughter Annabelle Rose, 3, a lift during the event.

Photos by The Eagle/Angel Carpenter

Above photo: Fun run participant Brian McKrola of John Day is plastered with pink as he passes one of the color stations run by Byron Grant and Megan Grant of Portland and Cody Bowden (behind McKrola) of John Day. A mother and her child are also blasted with the nontoxic powder.

Left photo: Sara Burns, left, of Burns and Sena Raschio of John Day show plenty of spirit during last Saturday's Color Me Free Fun Run.

RUN

Continued from Page B1

Heart of Grant County executive director Shelly Whale said the event is “all in honor of kicking off Domestic Violence Awareness Month.”

There were around 100 fun run participants, with 25 volunteers helping with registration and running the six color stations – and there was even more colored paint powder to go around this year.

Each walker/runner also received a bag of paint powder to throw at their friends along the way.

Outreach/advocate Tammy Larkin said the fun run is not a fundraiser, but an outreach event.

“Our main priority is to let the community know who we are and what we do, which is bring awareness to domestic violence and to promote wellness and healthy lifestyles,” she said.

“That’s the most important message – we’re there for anybody who needs help,” Whale said.

For more information about Heart of Grant County, call 541-575-4335, email heartgc@ortelco.net or visit their Facebook page.

JOB OPPORTUNITY

Some Western regions are epicenters of change. Our beautiful Oregon community is one of those. The territory served by the Blue Mountain Eagle frequently juggles forest health, logging, public lands grazing, water supply, wildlife habitat improvements and wildfire resilience.

For a journalist who thrives on the new story of the West, becoming Editor of the Eagle is an excellent opportunity. Our work place offers year-round recreational opportunities, including backpacking, camping, fishing, hunting, snowmobiling and horseback riding.

Part of a family-owned Oregon media company, the Blue Mountain Eagle is located in John Day, Oregon, just 3 hours from Bend and Pendleton. There is a small-town lifestyle and the news opportunities are varied and challenging. The community is at the center of an evolving natural resource restoration economy, which gains statewide and even national attention.

The Eagle, seeks an energetic, creative, outgoing and hard-working Editor. This is your opportunity to join a company that believes in community journalism. The Eagle is the oldest (146 years) weekly newspaper in Eastern Oregon and is part of EO Media Group, an award-winning and innovative news organization with active owners.

We seek a journalist who is passionate about local news, excited about the opportunity to publish in print, on line and with social media. You'll manage and mentor two newsroom employees and work with a professional page design team. Your journalistic integrity is a must; leadership, budgeting, multi-media and mentoring experience are a plus. This is a hands-on position that edits and writes stories; takes photos; posts daily to our web site; and uses social media to engage readers. Along with the Eagle's Publisher, you will need to be involved in the community.

EO Media Group owns 11 newspapers and 17 websites that provide accurate, fair and timely reporting about the people and issues impacting the communities we serve in the Pacific Northwest, reflecting the responsibility and spirit of a free press.

Candidates with an education in journalism or a related field, plus at least 5 years of progressive newspaper leadership experience should send resume and letter of interest to EO Media Group, PO Box 2048, Salem, OR 97308-2048, by fax to 503-371-2935 or email hr@eomediagroup.com.

02028

Your Rural Family Health Clinic		Grant County HEALTH
		Department 528 E. Main, St. E. John Day
Services Provided: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Care • Acute Care • Women's Health Exams • Men and Children Exams • Immunizations • Family Planning • Contraception • Pregnancy Testing & Referrals • HIV Testing & Referrals • Cacoon • WIC • High Risk Infants • Maternity Case Management 		Monday - Friday 8am - 5pm Karen Triplett, FNP Appointments available Call and schedule your appointment today! TOLL FREE 888-443-9104 or 541-575-0429
<small>Grant County Health Department does not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, national origin, disability, or age in admission, treatment, or participation in its programs, services and activities, or in employment.</small>

Have an Event?

We have the perfect setup!

Parties

Reunions

Receptions

Kitchen and dining room facilities available
Call the John Day Golf Course clubhouse at 541-575-0170