JOHN DAY – All good things must come to an end.

That includes the John Day Farmers Market season, but it's going out in a flash of color and fun with a Harvest Festival from 8 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 17, on Southwest Brent Street in John Day.

In addition to an array of vendors selling locally produced food, handmade crafts and other items, activities include live music by singer-songwriter Wayne Worthen; tasting booth by Elaine Mezzo, featuring local produce, eggs and meat; Lindsay Rausch of Doodlebugs with harvest activities for children; and pumpkins.

A favorite feature, the apple press, will be on hand again, too. Anyone is welcome to bring apples to be pressed, and should bring containers for collecting the juice.

Anyone interested in reserving a booth for the Harvest Festival should call Jan Keil, 541-910-5150.

This is the sixth year for the John Day Farmers Market. The 2016 season is scheduled to resume the third Saturday of June.

VFW HELPS A LOCAL VETERAN

Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3597 Quartermaster

Jim Jerome, left, and Commander Gregg Starr, have a check for $1,500 ready to mail to local Marine veteran Mike Mannell, who lost his home to the Canyon Creek Complex fire. The funds came from the local post and VFW Post 584 in Albany, aimed at assisting a local veteran impacted by the disaster.

Mannell had been building the two-story cabin, which was to be his retirement home, for the past six years, and was nearing completion when the fire swept through the canyon.

Canyon Creek Channel Rehabilitation Project

Due to the destruction of soil stabilizing vegetation from the Canyon Creek Complex Fire, there is potential for a substantial increase in flooding along Canyon Creek. The hydrologist from the BAER team has estimated water flows could be 3 times higher than previously experienced. These flows will have a significant effect on areas of Canyon City and John Day.

Long and short term projects to minimize the impact from increased flood waters will be discussed at this meeting. These projects will have an impact on many landowners along Canyon Creek from the John Day River to the upstream city limits of Canyon City. You will have an opportunity to ask questions.

Doug Ferguson of Ferguson Surveying and Engineering will be sharing plans for these projects at this community meeting.

For more information you may contact Doug at dougfse@ortelco.net

As a stake holder in these flood mitigation efforts, you are encouraged to attend
