

OBITUARIES

Lynn Ryle Pryse
April 11, 1933 – Oct. 21, 2015

BAKER CITY – Lynn Ryle Pryse, 82, formerly of Prairie City, died Oct. 21. There will be a Celebration of Life at a later date.

Mr. Pryse was born April 11, 1933, in Prairie City, to Gladys and John Pryse. He attended Prairie City High School where he excelled in basketball, football and general pranks. He was drafted into the U.S. Army during the Korean War and was stationed in California. After his service, he was recruited to play football for Eastern Oregon College.

On Sept. 11, 1955, he married Sandra Yokom, which began a 60-year adventure.

He began his professional career with a series of leadership positions in varied fields. He worked in the timber industry, helped open the first Les Schwab store in Burns, managed the swimming pool in John Day, and ultimately worked for California Pacific utility for 30 years. He retired from Oregon Trail Electric Co-Op in 1993 and embarked upon an active retired life.

His hobbies included archery, hunting, golfing, camping, fishing, his Alpenlite travel club, watching his grandchildren in various sports and activities, and giving back to his community.

He was active in the Baker City and Burns Lions clubs, the golf board, American Red Cross, Trail Tenders, the Episcopal Church and various service organizations throughout Eastern Oregon. He was chairman of the State 1A basketball tournament for several years and enjoyed watching basketball at Baker High School.

He was a welcoming man who never knew a stranger, and enjoyed life to the fullest.

Survivors include his wife of 60 years, Sandra Pryse; children, Cammy (Fred Jr.) Warner of Baker City, Kevin (Donna) Pryse of Burns, Mary (Jim) Gerson of San Clemente, Calif. and Jennifer (Kevin) Riley of Milton-Freewater; brother, Dean Pryse of Parkdale; stepbrothers, Marv Sumner of Baker City and Richard Sumner; grandchildren, Courtney (Adam) Warner Crowell, Mackenzie Warner, Jamie and Katrina Pryse, Taryn and Bryce Gerson, and Megan, William (Mica) Riley and Camille Riley; and great-grandchild Hazel Crowell.

He was preceded in death by his brother Daryl Pryse. Memorial contributions may be made to the Baker City Episcopal Church or the Baker High School Athletic fund.

Jacquelin Rennels-Winegar
May 28, 1939 – Oct. 23, 2015

Jacquelin Winegar, 76, of Prairie City, died Oct. 23 at Blue Mountain Care Center in Prairie City. Services are pending.

Mrs. Winegar was born May 28, 1939, in Redmond, to Perry "Tye" Clyde and Jewel "Jake" Lily Rennels.

In 1962, she married Raymond Winegar, with whom she had four sons and one daughter. They moved to Prairie City in 1980, where he bought the shingle mill up Dixie Creek. In 1982, they put a claim on a gold mine with friends and enjoyed the claim for a couple years.

She tended bar at the Past Time Tavern for a time, but was a housewife who enjoyed raising her children. She taught Sunday school at the Episcopal Church. She also kept all her kids busy with 4-H animals, and started a 4-H sheep club for 9-year-olds. They went to the rodeo nearly every weekend.

She enjoyed visiting, reading, painting, drawing, fishing at Strawberry Lake, working in her rock garden, riding horses, motorcycles and watching TV. She also enjoyed camping and wildlife adventures – even though she had only packed a rifle three times and prayed she wouldn't see anything. She was Annie Oakley with a pellet pistol, though, and lived quite the adventurous life.

Survivors include her children, Herbert Carey Dahlen, Jacquelin Renel Dahlen-Muro, Kevin Bryan Dahlen, Raymond Tye Winegar and Richard Todd Winegar; 13 grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Raymond Winegar. Memorial contributions may be made to the Blue Mountain Care Center through Driskill Memorial Chapel, 241 S. Canyon Blvd., John Day, OR 97845.

Bonnie Ann Barton
March 8, 1937 – Oct. 16, 2015

Bonnie Ann Barton, 78, formerly of Colton, died Oct. 16 at Blue Mountain Care Center in Prairie City. No services will be held at this time.

Mrs. Barton was born March 8, 1937, in Yoncalla, to Rudolf Ulbricht and Irene Armitage.

She attended Colton High School, and worked as a care giver and cook at the Colton Care Center.

On July 9, 1954, she married Melvin Barton.

She enjoyed singing, reading, sewing and gardening. She touched the hearts of those who knew her.

Survivors include her husband, Melvin Barton of Colton; son, Jim Barton of Colton; daughters, Sandy Rue of Prairie City and Debbie Farnsworth of Mt. Angel; and six grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her brother Bob Ulbricht. Memorial contributions may be made to Blue Mountain Hospice through Driskill Memorial Chapel, 241 S. Canyon Blvd., John Day, OR 97845.

Jacelyn Black

RICHLAND, Wash. – Jacelyn Black, 36, formerly of John Day, died Oct. 25 in Richland, Wash. A funeral service will be at 1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 31, at Prairie Baptist Church in Prairie City. Interment will follow at Canyon City Cemetery.

Arrangements are under the care of Driskill Memorial Chapel, 241 S. Canyon Blvd., John Day, OR 97845.

Scholarships help Grant County students

Stewart Scholarship recipients receive help with their higher education goals

By Angel Carpenter

BEND – Aspiring to higher education goals, 117 recipients of the Wayne Stewart Scholarship received funds to help them on that path.

Renee Boe of U.S. Bank's Private Client Group in Bend announced this year's total distribution amount is $581,000.

Last year, $590,900 was distributed to 121 individuals. The amount depends on how the stock market performs.

The scholarships are a bonus to Grant County students of all ages who qualify, thanks to the late benefactors Wayne Stewart of Dayville and his son Eminger Stewart III who made provisions in their wills for a perpetual education fund to be set up upon their death.

In her emailed announcement Boe added, "Our thoughts go out to all those affected by the Canyon Creek fire."

For more information about the scholarship, visit www.granted.k12.or.us and click on the "Stewart Scholarship" at the bottom right of the page.
