JOHN DAY — Monday, Jan. 11, we were open after planning on being closed for the installation of the new kitchen floor. It had to be postponed until warmer weather so the cooks fixed up a wonderful taco pizza, corn/Frito salad and churros and ice cream for dessert. There were approximately 30 people present for lunch.

Buzz and Bobbie Gilmore delivered 19 meals, plus 24 frozen ones to shut-ins. Veanne Weddle helped with the deliveries. Ron Dowse and Billie Bullard greeted us.

Our servers were Buzz and Bobbie Gilmore and Jeanette Kile. They represented Redeemer Lutheran Church. Bobbie led the flag salute, and Buzz asked the blessing.

Veanne announced that the Red Cross DAT Fair will be held Feb. 6 at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

We had a couple first-timers today, Dennis and Sandy Gilson. They are local people so we hope they will join us again. Lenora Thomason won the Len's Drug gift certificate, and Ben Luthethe won the free meal.

On Jan. 14, we served approximately 72 meals to in-house diners. It was chicken divan, rice and baby carrots, French bread and, for dessert, warm apple pie. The entree was donated by Iron Triangle Logging, and the pies were donated by the Elks Lodge. Thank you, folks, for your donations.

Buzz Glass and his daughter, Brandi, delivered 25 meals. Our servers were Carla Anderson, Linda Sprouffske, Zola Pike, Donna Mulder, Donna Johnson and Andy Anderson. They are from Cornerstone Christian Fellowship. Andy led the flag salute, and Pastor Levi asked the blessing.

Susan Fowle and Marianne Morris greeted us, and Dave Pasko sold raffle tickets. Ron Dowse did the announcing in the absence of Veanne Weddle.

Elmer and Jean Thompson had their daughter, Peggy Firkus from Bend, joining them today. It was baby day at our center. Levi brought his wife and 2-year-old daughter. My granddaughter, Kelllyn, also came with her son, who is 6 months old. They were both very well behaved children, and it is wonderful to have our younger generation visit with us.

Maria won the Chester's Thriftway gift certificate, and Buzz Harris won the meal for two at Valley View.

Thursday, Jan. 21, we will have clam chowder with a fish entree. Monday, Jan. 25, we will have sausage diablo with rice.

MONUMENT — We went to Pendleton with some friends this past week to experience that all-you-can-eat lobster dinner at the Wildhorse Casino.

We splurged a little on our budget and gorged ourselves. I had four lobsters. I wanted to eat more but just couldn't eat another bite.

I'm so glad that we went early because, oh my goodness, by the time we were leaving, there was a great long line waiting to pay and get a table.

I tried to pace myself and not eat too much of the other extra stuff. I'm not sure if we would go back for lobster but maybe for a different meal.

Our place has been a slippery, icy and wet hazard area. We had to purchase those anti-slip tracks to put on our boots for extra grip.

My dogs were even slipping around while running. It was hilarious watching one of our dogs who is on the plump side run down our drive and couldn't stop!

For our Jan. 12 meal, our great cooks, Terry Cade and Carrie Jewell, made us hamburgers, with all the side condiments, fries, yummy macaroni salad and lemon cake. Our greeters were Bob Blakeslee, Bodean Andersen and Marva Walker.

Bob led the flag salute, and Bodean made the announcements and prayed the blessing over our meal.

Charlotte Barker won the Len's Drug gift card. Doug Sweek and Aaron Harris both won a free meal.

The raffle for the quilt will be held March 1, and the raffle for the chocolate basket will be Feb. 9.

Tickets are $1 each or six tickets for $5. Our fundraising chairman for the Senior Center is Judy Harris, who has been devoted to assisting the center with her generosity and creative creations.

We are thankful for Judy for her love of the community of Monument and the people.

Our next sewing class will be Feb. 6 at the Senior Center. The class will be from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Bring a potluck item to share and, of course, your sewing machine. All are welcome.

It's a fun activity to share in the love of sewing, fellowship and a yummy meal.

Just a note in case you didn't know, the People Mover takes residents from Monument to John Day every Thursday.

They leave at 9:30 a.m. and are back by 3 p.m. If you would like more information, contact Veanne Weddle.

I've been keeping busy sewing and canning some beans in my spare time since I'm kind of stuck in the house. I'm actually a homebody so I don't really mind being inside. I think I might be glad though when spring comes and I can be outside more. By then I might have cabin fever.

PRAIRIE CITY — The old adage was true in Grant County this week: If you don't like the weather, wait a few minutes. The temperature on Monday at 6 a.m. registered 14 degrees; Tuesday, 25; Wednesday, 41. Just dress for the weather, huh? But be prepared with layers to either put on or take off. It keeps you from getting bored.

The set-up crew of Buzz, Jim and Joe completed their chores as usual. Buzz and Jim delivered 25 meals around town. They didn't make it back until after Joe led the flag salute and asked the blessing. We had 79 names on the book. Our faithful volunteer, Pam Howard, won the $5 in trade donated by Prairie Hardware & Gifts.

Our volunteer servers included Carla Wright, Julia Davis and JoAnne Phippen. Harold poured coffee, too. Kitchen helpers included Donna Adams and Linda Boyer. We are so thankful for those who step up to help in time of need. Bless you. We were served grape juice, kale salad, creamed corn, noodles and cheese, meat loaf, rolls and mango-peach-apple fritter with just-made whipped cream on top. Mmmm, good. We thank the Food Bank for the donation of the corn and noodles.

Loma and Kellyn from Blue Mountain Care Center brought Dorothy Blasing, Donna Cox, Marilyn Randall and Lois Hill. It was good to see Billy Drinkwater and Norma Rynearson journey up the river from Valley View.

The Site Council held their scheduled meeting after dinner and it was most productive. We have an excellent group to represent you so don't be afraid to ask them questions. If they don't know, they'll find out. Bruce Kaufman is the chairman, Harold Preston is vice-chairman, Sandi Rennels is secretary and Linda Boyer is site manager. Other members are Gary Jacobson and Del Lake. Nancy Viggers sat in to observe and is considering being on the board. I appreciate their willingness to serve. The more the merrier, right?

Listen, my children, and you shall hear of the tale of the remote control: Back in "The Good Old Days," when TV first made its appearance, the procedure was to walk to the set, turn it on, change the channel and raise or lower the volume by turning dials on the machine. Then you could sit down until you wanted to change it again. Today we have the wonderful remote control, a lovely instrument. Our new flat screen TV remote has 44 buttons on it. I have no idea what 3/4 of them do. The old VHS remote has 14; the DVD player, 39; the sound bar for the TV, 13; the Bose radio/CD player, 26. So now when you sit down to watch TV, you have to have two remotes in hand to operate the TV and the sound bar. Which is why I refuse to get a smart phone! Just heard that getting up and down from a chair is very good exercise, too. Turn them all off and go for a walk!

1 Tim. 4:8 "For bodily exercise profits a little, but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life that now is and of that which is to come."
