

EAGLE ON VACATION

Sheldon Lenz of John Day took the Eagle on vacation to the Texas-New Mexico state line on Jan. 9. Take a photo with the Eagle (print or mobile editions) while on vacation, and email it to cheryl@bmeagle.com or bring it to the Eagle office.

Correction

The Jan. 27 headline "Shootout, death end stand-off" was inaccurate. The incident was a shooting. The Jan. 27 article "Report hunt results by Jan. 31" listed an incorrect phone number. The correct number to report results is 1-866-947-6339. The Eagle regrets the errors.

OBITUARIES

Cecelia Teresa Houck

Dec. 13, 1936 — Jan. 21, 2016

BEND — Cecelia Teresa Houck, 79, of Dayville, died Jan. 21 at St. Charles Medical Center in Bend, with family by her side. A service will be at 5 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 6, at Dayville Presbyterian Church.

Houck was born Dec. 13, 1936, in Denver, to Celia Perea and Bruce Callbeck.

She moved to Dayville in 2003.

Survivors include her sister, Terrie Moulton of Dayville; daughter, Valaire Arellano of San Pedro, California; sons, Steven Houck and Wayne Houck from Moore, Oklahoma; granddaughters, Valarie Arellano and Monica (Sergio) Garcia; grandson, Frankie Arellano; and great-grandchildren, Desiree Armigio, Nathan Armigio, Joleen Garcia, Ricky Garcia and Nadine Garcia.

She was preceded in death by her mother and father, Katsumi Manaka.

Rachel Rebecca Stewart

Oct. 13, 1918 — Jan. 18, 2016

REDMOND — Rachel Rebecca "Becky" Stewart, 97, of Canyon City died on Jan. 18 at her daughter and son-in-law's home in Redmond, where she had been living since September 2012.

All are welcome to a celebration of life at 1 p.m. Saturday, April 23, at the John Day Senior Center.

Stewart was born Oct. 13, 1918, in Vernonia, to Thomas and Margaret (Spencer) Throop. She attended school in Vernonia, and then her family moved to Dayville, where she graduated from high school.

In 1938, she married Norman MacDonald, with whom she had two daughters, Jeanie and Cathy. They lived on the MacDonald ranch on Rock Creek below Dayville.

In 1956, he was killed in an accident. In 1958, she married rancher Dalton Stewart from Dayville. He died in 2006.

The happiest years of her life were living on the ranch being a rancher's wife.

Survivors include her daughters, Cathy (Chris) Struck and Jeanie Pauley; granddaughters, Kati (Brian), Angie (Matt), Lindsey (Josh), Heather (Robb) and Annalisa (Terry); great-grandchildren, Jonathan, Hardy, Klanci, Isaac, Dalton and Adin; nieces and nephews; her youngest brother, Tommy of Anchorage, Alaska; and a sister-in-law, Dollina Humphreys, who lives at Blue Mountain Care Center in Prairie City.

She was preceded in death by three siblings.

Arrangements are under the care of Autumn Funerals, 485 N.W. Larch Ave., Redmond, OR 97756.

Pamela Uebler

June 10, 1954 — Jan. 23, 2016

Pamela McIntosh Uebler, 61, of John Day died Jan. 23 at her John Day home surrounded by family and friends. A viewing was held Jan. 29 and a funeral service on Jan. 30. Interment was at Canyon City Cemetery.

Uebler was born on June 10, 1954, in Buffalo, New York, to Robert and Margaret McIntosh. She attended and graduated from the Kenmore West High School in Kenmore, New York. In 1976, she graduated from the SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry in Syracuse, New York. She also studied engineering and harvesting at Oregon State University.

She served as a forester for North East Experiment Station in New York, USFS Olympus National Forest in Washington, and Malheur National Forest in Oregon where she was also promoted to lands and mineral specialist for the last five years before retiring in 2012 after 35 years.

On Sept. 27, 1980, she married Edward H. Uebler at the St. Aloysius Gonzaga Roman Catholic Church in Buffalo.

She enjoyed gardening, hunting, collecting Breyer horses, feather and flower arrangements, home construction, target shooting and photography. She was affiliated with the Oregon Bird Hunters Association, Grant County Sportsman's Club and the Society of American Foresters from 1975-1992.

Survivors include her husband, Edward Uebler of John Day; sister, Mary McIntosh of Buffalo; brother-in-law, Rory M. Brake of Buffalo; brother, Robert G. McIntosh of Buffalo; brother and sister-in-law, Luke and Pam Uebler, and Margret Otoka of Buffalo; and nieces and nephews, Bethany, Victoria, Rachel, Robert, Ryan, Sarah, Luke, Kyle and Aaron.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Robert and Margaret McIntosh.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network through Driskill Memorial Chapel, 241 S. Canyon Blvd., John Day, OR 97845.
