Thursday, Jan. 28, we had beef stroganoff with noodles, steamed broccoli, green salad, biscuits, and for dessert, we had lemon bars.

There were approximately 64 diners plus 26 delivered. The entree was furnished by United Methodist Church Thrift Shop.

David Pasko and Margaret Glass greeted us, and Susan Fowle sold raffle tickets.

David Turner, Jimmy Maple and Veanne delivered the meals. Members of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church were our servers.

Representing the church were David Turner, Jimmy Maple, Joan Vetter and Walt and Agnes Hall.

Walt led the flag salute, and Jimmy asked the blessing.

Be sure and make reservations for the Valentine's dinner on Feb. 11. It should be a pretty special meal.

There will also be extra door prizes so don't miss out.

Billie Bullard won the Chester's Thriftway gift certificate, and Wilbur Ashby won the meal for two at Valley View.

On Thursday, Feb. 4, we will have tropical pork, sweet potatoes and gumbo soup.

On Monday, Feb. 8, it will be Asian green salad, shrimp fried rice and fortune cookies.

by the FFA of Grant Union High School), a beautiful and fresh green salad and peach cooler cake.

Our greeters were Bob Blakeslee and Marva Walker. Bob led the flag salute, and Marva made the announcements. Yours truly prayed the blessing over our meal. Dan Clifford won the Len's Drug gift card. Bruce Kramer and Larry Voight both won a free meal.

The 4-H of Monument are selling citrus fruits; please contact Sahara to place orders.

I cannot believe the month of January has come and gone. It was here, and then in a flash, it was gone. Before we know it, spring will be here.

I am getting so excited. There is so much to do! I plan on doing lots of new veggies for my garden this year.

Every year that we have been here, the weather patterns were so different from one to the other.

The winters were different, the summers were different and even the spring and fall. It kind of keeps us on our toes a bit as to what to plant in our garden.

I am planting this time with chicken wire on the bottom of planter beds and also planning on planting the garden near my cats.

You know, to kill any gophers that try and eat all my hard work.

Day supper will be here next Tuesday. She enumerated the menu, and I started getting hungry!

The Retherfords invited everyone to their Valentine's Day dinner at the Outpost next month. They said they have been doing this for 20 years!

So back to our delicious meal. We had grape juice, green salad, mixed veggies, baked potato, gravy, pork loin roast, applesauce, rolls and, for dessert, an "orange-sicle" cake with just made frosting. I haven't got enough adjectives to convey how good this meal was. I even had a biscuit with the gravy on it because the gravy was so good. And it only cost $4. What a deal!

Lorna and Kellyn brought Dorothy Blasing, Donna Cox and Lois Hill from Blue Mountain Care Center.

We have been approved by OTEC and Ed Staub to take over the respective utility accounts, so we have all our bases covered now. Next comes prioritizing the things that need attention. Again, thanks to the members of the Site Council for pursuing their mandate with intelligence and alacrity.

The date for the Evening of Entertainment has been set for April 23 on the Senior Center stage. So far we have a Star Trek/Star Wars piano trio, country themed songs by the Dingle-a-lings, a string tribute to Glen Campbell and a medley of Broadway songs by the ensemble. If you want to "join the party", let me know. The more, the merrier.
