JOHN DAY — On April 11, we had a nice crowd for a Monday. There were approximately 36 diners at the center, plus 21 meals delivered and 20 frozen ones delivered to shut-ins. Our lunch consisted of chili-smothered burritos, chips and salsa, Mexican corn and fruited Jell-O for dessert. Francis and Bonnie Kocis, who represented Redeemer Lutheran Church, delivered the meals.

These two also served us along with Buzz and Bobbie Gilmore. Buzz led the flag salute, and Francis asked the blessing.

It was Linda Stoltz’s birthday, and to show our gratitude for all she does here at the center, we had a birthday card set out for all to sign.

If you want to go to the Oregon Trail Electric Co-op meeting in Baker City on April 30, there are only a few seats left on the bus, so you better get signed up. Veanne announced her class “Living with Chronic Pain” has been changed from Wednesdays to Thursdays. The first class will be at 2:30 p.m. April 21 in the library at the center.

Nikky Essex won the Len’s Drug gift certificate, and Bobbie Gilmore won the free meal.

On April 14, we had approximately 56 diners at the center and 31 take-out lunches. There were also 10 frozen meals taken to shut-ins. Buzz Glass, his daughter, Brenda, and Veanne delivered the meals. The Glasses represented Cornerstone Christian Fellowship. We had meatballs in homemade barbecue sauce, potato salad, carrots and dinner rolls, and since it was National Pecan Day, we had pecan pie for dessert.

Margaret Glass and Marianne Morris greeted us. Serving for Cornerstone were Zola Pike, Donna Mulder, Donna Johnson and Linda Sprouffske. The Rev. Levi Manitsas helped and also asked the blessing. Donna Johnson led the flag salute. Bank of Eastern Oregon furnished the entrée.

Veanne announced there will be a candidate forum at 1 p.m. Saturday, April 23, at the Canyon City Community Hall. It’s open to the public and free of charge. Come and find out what the candidates stand for.

Veanne was then going to present Linda with her birthday card, but, as usual, she was busy in the kitchen.

Dale Stennett won the Chester’s Thriftway gift certificate, and Maria Strom won the Valley View lunch for two.

On Thursday, April 21, we will have cheesy chicken pesto with pasta, and on Monday, April 25, we will have loaded baked potatoes with chicken Alfredo sauce.

Matthew 6:20 “Lay up for yourselves treasures in Heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal.”

MONUMENT — On April 12, our cooks, Terry Cade and Carrie Jewell, made us some juicy pulled pork sandwiches, french fries, cole slaw and peanut butter cookies. I garnished my sandwich with barbecue sauce, mustard and the cole-slaw, and oh, it was very tasty.

Thank you, ladies! Our greeters were Bob Blakeslee, Bodean Andersen and Marva Walker. Bob led our flag salute, and Bodean made announcements along with the blessing over our meal. Linda Abraham won the Len’s Drug gift card.

Both John Yeager and Larry Voght won free meals. We had a crowd of 53 guests attending and seven take-outs.

We had many visitors join us for lunch. From Prineville, we had Dennis Dice, Tim Cross and Paula Cross.

From John Day, we had DeLayne Dice, Mike Cross and Brantley Hall. From Prairie City, we had Harold Preston and Jim Hamsher. Theda Phelps also brought her grandson from Portland, Phillip Britt, for lunch.

There is a Mother’s Day basket that is being raffled, so come purchase your tickets for a chance to win this for your mother!

The first annual rummage sale of Monument is in dire need of donations, so please go through all your stuff and donate what you don’t need or use. It may be junk to you, but it could be treasure for someone else.

The sale will be May 13-14 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Contact Sylvia Cockerell, Judy Harris or Karen Stubblefield for more information.

Don’t forget, the People Mover comes every Thursday at 9 a.m. to take anyone who wants to go to John Day. You will be back home by 3 p.m.

There will be a sewing class from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, April 23, at the Senior Center.

Bring your sewing machines and a dish to share for our potluck. The class is free, and it’s a wonderful time of sewing, chatting, eating and women bonding time.

There is a project that will be worked on for that day if you want to participate.

For more information, call Judy Harris. Otherwise, you can bring your own project to work on. We’d love to have you — the more the merrier! It’s always exciting to meet new people who share a common interest.

Mark 13:26-27 “And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. And then shall he send his angels and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.”

PRAIRIE CITY — Hooray! There are only three days until Evening of Entertainment. Write it down, tie a string around your finger, put it in your phone, iPad or whatever. Don’t forget!

We had a full house for lunch with 93 names on the registration book. Good show. Nine of those were from Valley View Assisted Living. Kim and Molly brought seven residents including Norma Rynearson. It was good to see them all. They made space at their table for Ivan Nance and his helpers, too.

Lorna, Shauntele and Angie brought Dorothy Blasing, Marilyn Randall and Otho Laurance from Blue Mountain Care Center. They haven’t had use of the bus, so they have had to push wheelchairs these last two weeks. Now that is dedication! Lorna won the $5 gift certificate donated by Prairie Hardware. That was fitting, wasn’t it? She deserves a reward, don’t you think?

Mayor Jim Hamsher led the flag salute, and Jack Retherford asked the blessing. We had apple juice, sloppy joes, jo-jos, kale salad with grapes and super-delicious brownies. They had walnuts and chocolate chips on top along with syrup. Oh, my. Our volunteers included Linda, Julia, Ginger, Donna, Lorna, Alaina, Molly, Bob, Harold, Ken and Frances. Works pretty good to have one diner from each table to serve the food. The problem is that we had 10 tables, and that made a traffic jam at the counter. So, if your organization would like to come and serve one day every so often and meet some neat people, just call Marlene Greer at 541-820-3537.

It was a red-letter day because we voted to purchase a brand-spanking new dishwasher. We had funds left over from the building purchase, so we can pay for it. That was our number one priority. Now on to number two.

The Grant County Jammers will be in attendance again on Wednesday, April 20, so get here early to hear them.

I have been working on my little flower bed. I still have about 4 feet of grass to dig up, then see if we can find some top soil to plant the seeds in. The poppies I rescued last year have survived the winter, and I’m expecting great things from them this year. The weirdest thing is that when I started digging in the area after the rocks and bricks had been removed, I kept finding grape hyacinth bulbs. Hundreds of them, but there have never been any that came up and bloomed there before! Son Bert called recently and gave me this big, long tale about him quitting his job. And I swallowed it. Then he said “April Fool.” Told him he was a little late. Oh, well. Better late than never. His son managed to pull one on him, so I guess he thought he was entitled.

1 Cor. 3:18 “Do not deceive yourselves. If any one of you thinks he is wise by the standards of this age, he should become a ‘fool’ so that he may become wise.”
