

EAGLE ON VACATION

Contributed photo

Richie Colbeth of John Day, right, took the Eagle on vacation to Iowa for a get-together May 13-15 with his brother, Ralph Colbeth of Meskwaki Settlement, Iowa, and sister, Margaret Hawkins of Arizona. This was the first time the siblings had seen each other in 75 years.

Take a photo with the Eagle (print or mobile editions) while on vacation, and email it to cheryl@bmeagle.com or bring it to the Eagle office.

ENGAGEMENTS

Cary-Heitstuman

Sarah Christine Cary and Bryce Daniel Heitstuman, of Clarkston, Washington, have announced their engagement to be married.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of David and Andrea Cary of Bend, and Dennis and Christy Waggoner of Prairie City. She graduated from Grant Union High School in 2007 and Lewis Clark State College in 2013, and works for Commercial Loan Processor at Potlatch No. 1 Federal Credit Union.

The prospective groom is the son of Wayne and Becky Heitstuman of Anaton, Washington. He graduated from Asotin High School in 2007 and Walla Walla Community College in 2008, and is employed at S & H Livestock.

The couple plan a June 18 wedding in Asotin, Wash.

OBITUARIES

Michael Earl Greear May 23, 1949 — May 16, 2016

Michael Earl Greear, 66, died May 16 at his Prairie City home.

Greear was born May 23, 1949, in Prairie City, to Elwood and Leola Greear. He grew up in Bates where he attended school until the third grade. He then attended Oregon State School for the Deaf in Salem, his second home, where he made many lifelong friends.

He attended Utah State University in Logan, Utah, where he met the love of his life, Claudia Stowell. They married on Jan. 22, 1971, in Bountiful, Utah.

They lived in Bates and then Prairie City. He worked as a millwright at Hines Lumber — later, John Day Lumber. His hobbies included classic car restoration, carpentry, hunting, mechanics, camping, motocross and snowmobiling.

He and his wife were active in the Grant County Snowballers and the Grant County Kruzers.

Survivors include his wife of 45 years, Claudia; daughters, Randi (Mike) Cole, Kandi (Richard Teel) Greear, Millie (John) Hicks and Kristen (Jared) Horrell; and six grandchildren, Mackenzie, Brandon, Tyler, Brett, Josie and Riley.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Elwood and Leola Greear, and his brother, Richard “Dick” Greear.

Arrangements are under the care of Driskill Memorial Chapel, 241 S. Canyon Blvd., John Day, OR 97845.

Natural Resource Camp application deadline June 1

Blue Mountain Eagle

back for 2016!

Natural Resource Camp is Campers will stay at Lake Creek Youth Camp and enjoy three days of fun activities, games and natural resource workshops. Activities include volleyball, horseshoes, geocaching, wildlife tracking, hiking, mountain biking and campfires with s'mores. Campers will also have the opportunity to explore the Strawberry Wilderness, nearby waterways, a National Forest allotment and an active timber sale.

Teens will learn about fire ecology, rangeland management, timber harvesting and stream morphology from a diverse set of local natural resource professionals, including private contractors, permit holders, agency personnel and watershed councils. Campers will team up to develop collaborative forest management solutions with their new-found knowledge and partnerships.

The camp is June 27-30. Youth going into seventh through ninth grades are eligible to enroll, and the registration deadline is June 1.

Registration sheets are available at each school in Grant County or at the OSU Extension office, 530 E. Main St., Ste. 10, John Day, OR 97845. You can also enroll online by visiting extension.oregonstate.edu/grant and clicking the link “4-H Summer Camps.” The link to the registration portal will be found underneath the heading “Natural Resource Camp.”

Natural Resource Camp is brought to you through a partnership between the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, South Fork John Day Watershed Council, U.S. Forest Service, OSU Extension, Grant County 4-H Association, Bureau of Reclamation, Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife, Lake Creek Youth Camp, Bonneville Power Administration, Oregon Watershed Enhancement Board, Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation, Grant County Bird Club, Blue Mountains Forest Partners, North Fork John Day Watershed Council, Oregon Cattleman's Association and Iron Triangle.

I think of you and miss you every day,
Clayton. You will never be forgotten.
