Blue Mountain EAGLE

The Blue Mountain Eagle, a family-owned weekly newspaper in a stunningly beautiful Oregon community, is seeking an energetic, dedicated reporter. Topics include forest health, logging, public lands grazing, water supply, wildlife habitat improvements and wildfire resilience in addition to coverage of small-town life and local government. The Eagle is located in John Day, Oregon, just three hours from Bend and Pendleton. The community is at the center of an evolving natural resource restoration economy, which gains statewide and even national attention. The location offers year-round recreational opportunities, including backpacking, camping, fishing, hunting, snowmobiling and horseback riding. Serving the community for 146 years, the Eagle is the oldest weekly newspaper in Eastern Oregon and is part of EO Media Group, an award-winning and innovative news organization with an active family of owners. This position offers excellent advancement opportunities in a company that prefers to hire from within. EO Media Group owns 11 newspapers and 17 websites that provide accurate, fair and timely reporting about the people and issues impacting the communities we serve in the Pacific Northwest, reflecting the responsibility and spirit of a free press. We seek a journalist who is passionate about local news and excited about the opportunity to publish in print, online and with social media. Candidates must be able to develop story ideas, take photographs, develop sources, prepare website and social media updates and work in a cooperative team environment. Journalistic integrity is a must. Journalism education or experience is required for this full-time position offering health and retirement benefits. Send resume, letter of interest and several clips of (or links to) your work to EO Media Group, P.O. Box 2048, Salem, OR 97308-2048; by fax to 503-371-2935; or by email to hr@eomediagroup.com.

Employment
