

ROUNDUP

Panther/Bull head coach Darrel McKrola said their first-half loss to Echo could be attributed to poor execution.

"Then we started to play football against Cove," he said. "We started to execute the plays a little better and had a little more success against Cove."

The successful plays resulted in touchdowns for the Panther/Bulls.

"Our offense performed a lot better," he said. "Our defense did well, stopping their team, and the boys started having a little more fun."

In the game against Echo, Nathan Maloy scored the sole touchdown for Prairie City/Burnt River.

Against Cove, Matt Siddoway scored one and Tyler Belveal scored two rushing touchdowns for the Panther/Bulls.

"Brogan McKrola and Wyatt Williams combined for most of the offense on the day," McKrola said. "Wyatt, Matt and Tyler combined for most of our defensive stops."

The team now prepares to host the Monument/Dayville Tigers at 1 p.m. Friday in Unity.

McKrola said the team will work on sharpening their blocking and pass patterns, and "not hesitate to hit."

Prairie City volleyball

Prairie City's volleyball team faced a tough Joseph team at Saturday's Interleague Jamboree in North Powder, taking a 0-2 loss, 8-25 and 14-25.

Panther co-coach Louanne Zwegardt said it was a challenging day for the team, but it gave them "an opportunity to see and play some good teams."

"This helped us work on elements of our game that will benefit us when league play begins," she said.

Prairie City hosted Burns junior varsity past press time on Tuesday, and will also host Grant Union junior varsity at 5 p.m. Wednesday, in nonleague matchups.

They travel to Unity Friday where they'll face Dayville/Monument at about 3 p.m., following the 2 p.m. junior varsity game, in their first league game of the season.
