

LADY PROS

Prospector Chelsie Kodesh excelled defensively with 19 digs, and Mariah Moulton had a strong night offensively with 24 kills, the coach said.

"As a team, we were strong at the net with 11 blocks against one of the strongest hitting teams in the state," Speth said. "We know that when we face Imbler again, it will be another tough battle."

Grant Union competes at the Friday, Oct. 21, Wapiti District Tournament at Eastern Oregon University in La Grande where they will face the winner of the Imbler versus Union match. Speth noted her team will likely face Imbler.

Grant Union is guaranteed a first-round state play-off game on Wednesday, Oct. 26.

The OSAA State Championships are scheduled for Friday and Saturday Nov. 4-5 in Redmond.

"I'm super proud of the girls," Speth said. "I think they surprised a lot of people with all they've done."

Prospector senior Natalie Stearns said she attributes the team's success to their good chemistry.

"We just get along so well," she said.

Regarding reaching their team goal to be league champions, she said, "There are no words to describe it. It's unbelievable."

Dig Pink Rally

At Saturday's Dig Pink Rally, Grant Union dominated over Union with scores of 25-14, 25-21 and 25-7.

The Grant Union junior varsity team also won its match.

"Dig Pink is always a good event for us," Speth said. "I think it's important for the kids to be involved in something that gives back and goes beyond themselves and volleyball."

This is the eighth year Grant Union has held the rally, earning more than $20,000 for the Side-Out Foundation for breast cancer research and for the Blue Mountain Healthcare Foundation, which helps local women pay for mammograms.

ROUNDUP

"It was a good match for us to be able to get varsity and junior varsity players in," said Tiger head coach Tiffnie Schmadeka. "The girls did a good job keeping the tempo of the game up, and they served really well."

Crane posed a tougher challenge on Saturday when the Tigers hosted the Mustangs in Monument.

Crane won 3-0 with scores of 25-8, 25-15 and 25-9.

"The girls played well versus Crane," Schmadeka said. "We had a lot of opportunities to work on our blocking and hitting around a block. This was good experience for our team, and we look forward to continue to work on these two things for the district tournament."

Schmadeka said her team is young and playing at the tournament will be a good learning opportunity.

"Our goal is to play our hardest, not give up, and to have fun," she said.

Monument/Dayville's junior varsity team also hosted Long Creek/Ukiah Saturday, the Tigers winning 2-0 with scores of 25-4 and 25-12.

Prairie City serves up aces in Harper

The Prairie City Panthers split wins in last week's games. They fell to Adrian 0-3 on Thursday in Burnt River.

The Antelopes won the match with scores of 25-18, 25-7 and 25-12.

Co-coach Louanne Zwegyardt said her team played well in the first set, but serving and hitting errors contributed to the loss.

Panther Sarah Ennis had two kills, Brianna Zwegyardt had two aces and three kills, Cassie Hire had two kills, and MaKenzie Jones had one ace.

On Saturday, the Panthers turned the tables, winning the match against Harper/Huntington in Harper 3-1 with scores of 22-25, 25-18, 25-14 and 25-20.

"It was a good opportunity for us to work on our offense," coach Zwegyardt said. "Overall the team had 30 ace serves."

 Cassie Hire: 3 aces, 6 kills, 2 blocks
