OBITUARIES

Daniel John Cline March 18, 1949 - Jan. 2, 2017

Daniel John Cline, 67, formerly of Prairie City, passed away Jan. 2 at University of Washington Hospital in Seattle of acute myeloid leukemia, surrounded by his loving family. A private interment with family and a military honor guard was conducted at Evergreen Memorial Mausoleum in Everett, Washington, Jan. 9.

Cline was born in Prairie City March 18, 1949, to Lawrence L. Cline and Jean Bernice (Gillette) (Cline) Bowen. He spent his youth growing up in the John Day Valley and graduated from Prairie City High School in 1967. He enjoyed gold panning at his father's mine, hunting and fishing, was a sports enthusiast and loved playing basketball.

After high school, Cline joined the Navy, being stationed at Lemoore Naval Air Station and then on to serve aboard the USS Enterprise — and was on board Jan. 14, 1969, when a rocket exploded on the deck, killing 27 and injuring 314, Cline being among the injured — and the USS Constellation, with service during Vietnam. After coming home, he was a recruiter for the Navy in Twin Falls, Idaho, and Grants Pass. His last assignment was to Whidbey Island Naval Air Station where he retired after serving 20 years with a rank of chief petty officer. After he retired, he volunteered as a referee for basketball and an umpire for softball leagues. He was an avid golfer, voracious reader and loved playing cards. His last five years, he lived in Arizona, and he and his wife, Laura, loved dancing and traveling in their motor home.

Cline is survived by his wife, Laura (Cooley) (Bennett) Cline; his daughters and their husbands, Trina and Shane Coe and Heidi and Jeff Haas; son Cody Cline; step-daughters Julie Dubravetz and Janelle and Jason Davis; seven grandchildren; his sisters and their husbands, Carol and Don Sass, Rebecca and Jack Bowles and Theresa and Victor Van Orden; his former wife Shirley (Cartwright) (Cline) Leonard; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his wife Linda (Dubravetz) Cline; a brother Kenneth Frankford Cline; and his grandparents Frankford L. and Emily Mae (Martin) Cline and William E. Gillette and (Rose) Mable Stella Florence (Schwarz) Scriven of Prairie City.

Jack Blondin Hood March 16, 1920 - Feb. 2, 2017

Jack Blondin Hood, 96, of Canyon City passed away at his residence at Serenity House Thursday, Feb. 2.

Hood was born on a small farm in Golden, Texas, on March 16, 1920, to William Hood and Leitha McLeod. He was the son of a sharecropper and, at 16, opened a radio repair shop before attending the University of Texas and UCLA.

He served in the Navy during World War II and was stationed on the USS Astoria. He was present at the Battle of the Coral Sea as well as the Battle of Midway; he received special commendation and a promotion to warrant officer. During his time serving his country, Hood earned seven campaign ribbons and participated in the Bikini bomb test in 1946.

Hood also served in the U.S. Civil Service, Naval Air Systems Command as a missile engineer and was involved in the ICBM program for 12 years.

Arrangements are under the direction of Driskill Memorial Chapel. To leave a condolence, visit driskillmemorialchapel.com.

Fern June Turner Jan. 31, 1921 - Feb. 9, 2017

Fern June Turner passed away Thursday, Feb. 9. She was born Jan. 31, 1921, to William F. Woodcock and Ivy L. Wise Woodcock. On July 18, 1938, she married Ellis E. Turner. She loved her yard, enjoying gardening, flowers and canning.

Turner was preceded in death by her husband, a sister and one great-grandson. She is survived by her sister, Illa Wilson; children, Duane Turner and Phyllis A. Turner; grandchildren; great-grandchildren; great-great-grandchildren; great-great-great-grandchildren; great-great-great-great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Donations can be made to Blue Mountain Hospice. A graveside service will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 15, at the Canyon City Cemetery, with a reception to follow at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in John Day.

The family of Eula Mae Thompson wishes to express our deep appreciation and gratitude for all the wonderful words of kindness, cards and flowers during our time of sadness.

To all the ones who gave donations to the American Alzheimer's Association, thank you. We hope to see an end to this horrible disease and know that your generous donations will help to that end. We would also like to thank the entire staff of the Blue Mt. Care Center.

It probably seems like "just a job" to you at times, but it means so much more to us. We appreciate all the care and love you showed to our mom.

Thank you all so very much.
