

A Shot Across the Medias' Bow

Paid for by Russ Denton

Given all we know about governments hacking each other, it's not hard to believe that Russia and many others hacked the DNC. What's frustrating is the way the press has created this false equivalency between Russian hacking and Russian "Leaking". No one seems to concede the possibility that while Russia hacked, it was a disgruntled Democrat insider who "leaked", when that is what a WikiLeaks insider has alleged. What's even more troubling is that what the Democrats are really so upset about is the fact that we learned the truth about the corruption of the Democrat primary process. Was there interference in the election process? Yes. The DNC railroaded Sanders and conspired with the news media on behalf of Clinton. Do foreign governments get involved in foreign politics? Congress invited Israel's top politician to come address it in opposition to our President. Obama went to England to campaign against Brexit. Who remembers "Radio Free Europe"? Likewise, we argue over whether or not CNN should have commented on the "Salacious Dossier" in light of its inclusion in an "Intelligence Briefing", when the question should be "How did 'Anybody' outside of the President Elect and his Intelligence "briefers" learn what was discussed in an "Intelligence Briefing?" Trump was angry with the politicized upper management of the CIA who had to be the leak: not the "Rank and File" who do the work. Yet the "Press" refused to report the difference. A difference made crystal clear when following Obama's "Scorched Earth" exit from Government; Signals eavesdropping that compromised General Flynn's characterization of a call made to the Russian Ambassador was reported directly to a News rag by the FBI as the CIA became "Alarmed" and the "Bureaucratic Class" revolted: presumably to protect their job security. Trump has some troublesome issues, like his views on torture, an over developed ego and no filter what so ever; but for better or worse, he represents a line in the sand that mainstream Americans have drawn against a forty-year assault upon their morals, their culture, their sovereignty, their livelihood and their God, by both parties. Some on the old Left are so bent out of shape over it that they'd sooner start another civil war, or even WWII, than accept this election.

I grew up in Iowa. I just moved back here from Iowa. The "Left" hates "Corporate Welfare", but the joke among working folks in Iowa is that the reason farmers bend the front of their ball-caps tight is so they can get their heads in the mail box to look for their subsidy checks. The Left hates tax "Loopholes", but thirty years after the rest of America lost the right to "Income Average" bad years with good years on taxes, farmers still can. The Left champions the EPA, but when I replaced my septic system in Iowa in the mid 1990's, the county specified its design and charged me $300 for the permit and the inspection. John Day has 2,000 inhabitants. Each of the many "Hog Confinements" that had surrounded my acreage (without public notice), before I lost it in 2010, had more than twice that many pigs in each of its many buildings and their sewage systems were all open pit crap ponds that were so ripe they made you nauseous in summer and kept us in flies through the mid-western winters. Hogs that died were incinerated in barbeque pits. The "Left" denounces Iowa's GMO corn, which has been shown by one of Iowa's Namesake Universities to be so devoid of nutrition that cattle will starve to death on it within six months; but does foster the country's corn syrup addiction, which leads to obesity and diabetes. Yet on 1/26/17, after Trump ended TPP, CBS' Scott Pelley aired an interview with a "Poor Iowa Farmer" about losing that export market, which he said was two-thirds of his entire market. But TPP was never completed, so the market he currently has was unaffected by killing TPP, nor has Trump said we would stop trading with those countries the TPP would have included. Yet Pelley conflated the two facts. Moreover, the interview was done in front of this farmer's hog confinement, so it seems likely that in "Truth" that two-thirds figure was a function of "Corn Income" not total income. The "Story" included a two-second clip of a woman (presumably his wife) running a combine, when the interview was aired at the end January and the harvest ends in Dec.: making it a "File Tape" used to get gullible Feminists on board against the villain Trump. This is Pelley talking out of both sides of his colon to lift up this farmer who stands for everything the Left despises in order to demonize our new President. The very next night Pelley gave as an example of The President's "Exaggerations", the number of jobs taken from the US by Mexico: between six and seven hundred thousand; when Trump said millions and millions. But Pelley fails to include all those from among the 1.2 million or more here illegally, who took American jobs from within our borders, in the same way he declines to admit they are all "Criminals" by virtue of the immigration laws they are breaking and thieves by virtue of the jobs they illegally take from American Citizens. If you put a tax on money transfers sending dollars back to Mexico you could pay for the wall in short order. They need to quit justifying people working here illegally on the basis that they want a better life while our prisons are full of people who tried to make themselves better off at the expense of others in violation of the Law and found themselves divided from their children as a result. They need to point out that Iowa is thick with Sanctuary Cities that probably have food and meat processing plants where Republicans enjoy "Slave Labor" and Democrats dream of the day when all those "Illegals" can be added to the Democrat "Caucus" roles. They need to remind Democrats that a Republican President signed the "Amnesty of 1986" that only led to today's flood.

By 2/8/17 the discourse had changed. The 9th Circuit Court of Appeals was hearing "Arguments" concerning the temporary travel restriction controversy and trying to assess the "Order's Intent" based upon anti-Muslim Campaign rhetoric by President Trump rather than "Judging" the "Law" on its merits. Even though the President had that "Executive Order" vetted through the Justice department (made up of left over Democrats who then refused to implement it) the Press now frames its role-out as poorly executed. The President read the law's identifying numbers followed by the Law itself on camera, but only after making a fool of himself by stating that he's smarter than almost all people. That foolishness made the CBS Evening News, as did the title of the Law that was read: but the easy to understand law itself, which clearly gave the President the power to institute a "Ban", was omitted. The "Intent" of the Court was clearly to defame the President as an anti-Muslim Racist in order to use the first Amendment's "Ban" on religious tests to circumvent the law. That character assassination of the office of the President was overlooked: even as the Press Corp began its laser focus on Trump's "So Called Judge" statement as an affront to the Judicial Activist Class that is headed by five Catholic and three Jewish Justices on the Supreme Court. Then just to exercise the other side of his colon once again, Pelly showed us the first half a "Tweet" the President made in which he admonished "Nordstrom's" discontinuation of his daughter's clothing line, without including the second half which gave context to his "intension" to defend his daughter as a positive force for all people, not to defend her clothing line. NBC insinuated that the Tweet had a negative affected Nordstrom Stock, when it may well be that a market analysis of a company that plays politics by going after a President's children may be closer to the real problem. More importantly, they characterized Ms. Conway's statements as endorsing Ivanka's clothing line when it was really more of a Civics lesson; that if political action groups can use the power of boycott to punish, or affect political outcomes, those on the other side have economic recourse as a remedy.

George Orwell's book "1984" described what he called "New Speak": A way of changing the meaning of words to change and confuse people's understanding and muddy the argument. It's "Haters", violently and intolerantly, protesting to keep someone from speaking because that "Speaker" is proclaimed to be "Intolerant". It's proclaiming anyone who disagrees with what the Media is espousing to be closed minded for offering a different view. Its labeling anyone who clings to American values a "Nativist" and if they happen to be "White and Male" a "White Supremacist". It's calling a "Temporary Restriction Order" a "Ban" until even the President misspeaks and refers to it as a Ban. Today we say that what Pelley and CBS did was to "Spin" the "News". But this is Propaganda, pure and simple: designed with the agenda of division to thwart any change that might unify. To call it The CBS Evening "NEWS" is to perpetrate a fraud by labeling a manufactured attack on Trump's killing the TPP as "NEWS". To attack him for his exaggerations rather than admit when they are truthful characterizations and, again, call it "NEWS". Our "Freedom of the Press" protections under the Constitution are a two edged sword. When the press becomes aligned with an "Agenda" it forsakes the very nature of its purpose, which is to give WE THE PEOPLE the facts that allow US to make the conclusions. What we have today is a Leftist Media on one side and a Rightwing Media on the other, spoon-feeding us their "Propaganda" narratives. It's not just politics either. When's the last time you saw a commercial in which someone talked to their doctor or dentist and "HE" not she, recommended something.

They need to stop dividing us by promoting Multiculturalism and Unisex-ism in an assault on the American Culture and Values that made America great in the first place. And please don't tell me they only take jobs we Americans don't want when nearly all the "Union" construction companies in the San Francisco Bay Area now employ 90% Hispanics. In 2015 one of them got caught and had to let a rumored 300 undocumented employees go. I say rumored because, while everyone in the industry heard about it, our Leftist Press doesn't report news that doesn't promote its propaganda agenda. Similarly, if your wondering why an alleged East Coast Republican like the owner of 84 Lumber, would spend millions on a Super Bowl Ad to support illegal immigration, it might be that like California; between Affirmative Action, SBA Loans and cheaper "Illegal" workers, you probably can't find many contractors on the East Coast who aren't Hispanic or who will employ those who don't speak Spanish. It is the same sin of omission that has left Americans in the dark concerning the truth that the Federal Reserve is privately owned and operated (The Money Masters @ Google Video); and was established in 1913 to become the forth of four such US central banks over the course of US history. They need to explain to new immigrants that the "immigrants who built this Nation" did it before "Affirmative Action" and LBJ's "Great Society" began redistributing wealth: not put them on camera to preach to a dying Middle-Class. After all, we can't let the whole of the world come to America, so if they come here as refugees fleeing war, we should be asking how these people were chosen. The Statue of Liberty beckons "Give me your poor, your huddled masses yearning to be free", not "come get a better wage" but a "news story" showing one of the families delayed by the "travel restriction" reported the heart rendering tale of how the family had already purchased a home for those detained and the house the parents lived in (also shown in the report) was above average.

Of course the Great Irony is that most immigrants come here hoping to make a better future for their next generation as well as themselves and it turns out that is at the heart of America's nostalgia for the good old days; before the "Greatest Generation", scared by the fear and uncertainties of "The Great Depression" and WWII, stopped nurturing their offspring's futures and started feeding off of them. The Baby Boomers, unable to live up to expectations and spurred on by the same Leftist Media, abandoned their children to be raised by strangers and PBS so that Mom could fulfill herself; making amends out of guilt, with monetary compensations that minimum wage couldn't compete with. With no one to teach them the culture or instill a sense of self worth, they seek their heroes in Media promoted violent videos and movies and sports and gangs and wars and the clergy of all faiths fail them in order to protect their individual doctrines.

The "Press" might also reflect on the fact that it was the "Press" that promoted the lies that got us involved in the wars that created those refugees. Just as importantly, while the press mischaracterized a temporary halt on immigration (from countries where terrorists may have access to the machinery used to make Passports) as an assault on Muslims; American Muslims stand to lose more than anyone else from the Backlash that would result from terrorist attacks carried out on American Soil. But then, division is the goal. Moreover, why does the Left speak so passionately of equality between the sexes, only to plead the case for immigrants as mostly women and children? It is the same continued conflation of New Speak that disguises the hope that these immigrants, like South and Central American "Illegals", will thrive when "aided" at every turn, and reciprocate as loyal Socialist Democrats: in the same way they conflate the voter registration of "Illegals" (which has been rumored to use Ca. Driver's licenses since the Clinton Administration) with voter registration of Blacks in order to mislead and divide. This has all been social engineering, going back to the "Robber Barons".

They need to admit that America was founded upon a belief in the validity that The Bible and its principles are indeed Holy and to remind America's Muslims that God's first and only "Spoken" command to Muhammad was to "Read", in a time when the only Holy Book of Abraham was The Holy Bible, whose possession outside the Priesthood was forbidden by Rome, under penalty of death. Remind them that the first "Americans" came here as Protest-ant Christians fleeing religious totalitarianism and fighting for Bible ownership, while many Muslims are fleeing Islamic "States" only to come here to try and abolish the separation of Church (Mosque) and "State" when true Islam acknowledges that The Koran rests on both The Torah and The Gospels as indispensable (THE BATTLEMENTS 155-160). Given that when Scalia was still alive the Court had six Catholic Justices and three Jewish Justices, it might be prudent to "report" the "FACT" that Catholicism is based on Greek Philosophy and never believed or accepted The Holy Bible as true: rather than hang on the words of the Pope or open your "News" cast with a picture of your Anchor and the Pope together like CBS does. Responsible reporting might also ask why Trump's pick for a Scalia replacement went to Oxford to study Philosophy: which is the "True", though unacknowledged, foundation of Catholicism. As Jesus and all The Prophets chastised Jewish People when they were wrong, WE should be able to at least ask why Obama's proposed replacement for Scalia was Jewish as well, without being labeled "Anti-Semitic". Even if such questions lead to others, like, "Why, when Gypsies and Jehovah's Witnesses, among others, also died in 'The Holocaust' do The Jewish People demand an 'Exclusive' right to the empathy it engenders?" Such "Truths" shed light, not just because to be "Gypped" is a verb still recognized by my "Spell Check", which Webster's once defined as "To Swindle" but more importantly, because Judaism's Messiah was never understood by Judaism to be "God The Father Incarnate". That's an amalgamation of Greek Mythology with Christianity that made Mary "Mother of God" after the manner Zeus and Hercules. Catholic means, "Universal": as in a gathering together of religions, like the way Easter Islanders added their gods to the Roman Religion and Central Americans added "the day of the dead" (3 ABN/TAJ Pacltes: Revelators of Hope). Catholic Doctrine split with Judaism over the nature of God The Father, and His Messiah as God made flesh, and almost all Protestant denominations have adopted that Catholic Canon. Whereas, Jesus, whom God referred to as His Son, and who referred to Himself as "Son of Man" (the living embodiment of God's Word, hence from beginning to end: perfection in God's Laws of Morality; as Heaven is perfected in God's Laws of Physics) is understood by the "Witnesses" as a man distinct from God and not God. And though the Witnesses have become a cult unable to "reason" with outsiders, they can make an argument for that case: a case I have made and a view which is in keeping with both the Judaism's Messiah and Islam: which proclaims "No God but God". Likewise, before the imposition of "New Speak", Webster's once defined "Semites" as Peoples who speak Hebrew or Arabic.

At the end of January 2017, a spokesman for the European Union spoke out against Trump as a threat to "World Order" within days of the Pope insinuating that the President was Hitler-like and a suggestion by the English Parliament that it might overturn the vote of the English People and void their "Brexit" vote to leave the European Union. You older folks might remember that it was George Bush Sr. who spoke of a "New World Order" for the first time on the world stage. It was the two Bush Presidencies that entangled us in wars in the Middle-East that ultimately gave rise to "Radical" Islam, pitting Protestant America against Islam: the two groups that believe in both Torah and New Testament, but are conflicted by the usurpation of God's Words and Muhammad's inspired epic poem by clergy on both sides. What's curious is that the Pope neglected to note that Hitler was raised in the Catholic Church despite one of his parent's being Jewish: a background similar to that which Madelyn Albright recently proclaimed without the Left associating her with the demon Hitler. According to the guy who airs a program called "End of the Age" on a "Direct TV Network", it was a modern day Pope who actually coined the phrase "New World Order". Puzzle on that.

While you may have noticed the way the "Media" fawns incessantly over the Broadway musical "Hamilton", until you educate yourself concerning The Money Masters, the private nature of the world's "Central Banks" and the true nature of "Money" itself as a commodity of common denomination perverted to a monopoly used to enslave; you are bumbling through the demise of all that was given us, blindfolded. This Media Darling "Hamilton" serves in two ways. It champions the notion of an economy run by a Central Bank without disclosing the private nature of that beast. Just as importantly, the cast, which represents The Founding Fathers and the revolutionaries of the day, is made up entirely of minorities to the exclusion of "Whites": supposedly to include minorities as owners of the American Dream, as well they should be. But the single exception to the minority casting, as I understand it, is the King of England, who threatens to kill not only those in revolt but their families as well. He alone is cast in White Face. These Banksters, who hide in plain sight and rob us of our earnings through compounded interest, seek to cast White Males as England's Overlords born to wealth and unwilling to share with the very minorities (cast as Colonials) these same bankers flood the country with, using the Media to demonize Whites, so as to divide and conquer and preserve their 4th Central Bank, "The Federal Reserve". While the Media demonize Whites for trying to preserve American Culture, the subtext is a promise to this Immigrant "Flood" that by overthrowing "Whites", America and its wealth can be transferred from a "White Monarchy", to that proposed Communist Coalition of Minorities, Women and Gays. The threat to the "Central Banks" is that if Americans would take the time to fulfill their Patriotic Duty and watch "The Money Masters", they would understand the "Game" that imprisons Mankind and dismantle the world's Central Banks by ending the charter of the Federal Reserve Bank. The "Truth" not shared with the "Minority" flood is that the only wealth America still retains other than a "Credit Card" called the Nation Debt, is its freedoms; which it seems too lazy and afraid to defend other than through violence: which is another "Game" controlled by the Oligarchy. The truth not shared with most Americans is that because Islam honors God's Law against interest (Usury), American Muslims compete with American Christians for housing with interest-free loans attained through networking within their sub-culture, while churches take tithes from money lenders. If memory serves, "60 Minutes" reported some thirty years ago that the Saudi's (home of the "Hijackers") circumvented that "Law" by investing in Citibank.

It's also worth mentioning that while the Press sympathized with Obama's apologetics concerning America's past sins against the world, which are many, the Leftists Media's schizophrenic colon pushed back hard when Trump acknowledged the same transgressions. They denounced his admission of "Killings" as "Moral Equivalency" to Putin's crimes, when as far back as the 90's there was a list of twenty-six suspicious deaths associated with the Media Darlings the Clintons. We all know of the "Proxy Wars" started and funded by the CIA. But such controversies are promoted to divide Republican support, which isn't that difficult when Republication insiders hate Trump as much as Democrats do. A "Charley Rose Panel" even alleged that America's "Politics of Division" stemmed from the Russians rather than the Democrats. These issues and their honest coverage become even more dyer when the sins of omission of the "Press" include the "Fact" that the hole left in the side of the Pentagon on 9/11 was no more than forty feet across (three stories high) and a passenger jet's wings are nearer a hundred (Google: Hunt the Boeing).

The foreknowledge of the Magi concerning the time and place of Jesus' birth attests to God's separation of Knowledge among the Nations, so that the Will of God and the meaning of His Prophecies remain hidden from mankind until they are recognized as having already been fulfilled; making a Free and Open Press, unbiased and uncensored, as important to Christianity as it is to The Republic. If you agree with me about this "New Speak", forward this letter to your friends and on to the FCC with the message "I see what you're doing". Demand that that agency do its job under "OUR" new President and return the function of News reporting to reporting the news and stop feeding us propaganda (This newspaper is in digital form at The Blue Mountain Eagle's website). Let the Media know that WE THE PEOPLE are ready to "DEMAND" that the FCC "REVOLK" CBS' license to use "OUR" airwaves if that Leftist Mouthpiece doesn't give the President fair coverage and Pelly doesn't go the way of Brian Williams.

Just imagine: if we could bring together Sanders' anti-Banksters (reference: "The Money Masters" @ Google Video), and Environmentalists who fear fossil fuels and pipelines (by giving free fuel; H₂O power-plants to all Americans as "Infrastructure Spending" as suggested in the letter to the editor in the 1/5/17 issue. Call it a "Public- Private Partnership" that pays for itself), with people who want fair Healthcare and fair wages; and an end to open boarders, political corruption and Political Correctness, and the Racial, Religious and Sexual Politics of Division: WE could have a peaceful revolution and see ISIS implode and this Nation return to its God and our children set free. But you can't have a peaceful revolution without an honest, impartial, Free Press. Living up here in this beautiful John Day Valley, it's easy to turn away and pretend that we are somehow safe against what is coming, or that one's guns can defend against such threats when they do come. The Malheur Occupation disproved that belief. This battle is a battle of words and ideas against which, guns have become an excuse to silence the opposition with violence. I am merely trying to give you some words, some ideas and the tools for your defense while there is still time for you to let freedom ring, before the violent revolution is imposed on you. Imagine that.
