Ingersoll was born May 10, 1954, in Burney, California, to Marvin and Ethel (McGinty) Ingersoll.

He loved the outdoors and drawing. He was a devoted husband, father and grandfather.

He is survived by his wife, Karen (Hicks) Ingersoll; three children, Shane Ingersoll, Shilo (Ingersoll) Ostberg and Tami Ingersoll; three grandchildren; brother, Robert Ingersoll; and sister, Deborah (Ingersoll) Schneider.

Per his request, no services will be held.

James Richard Lound

Oct. 21, 1930 - Nov. 22, 2016

James Richard Lound, 86, passed away Nov. 22, 2016, at Cherry Heights Retirement Center in The Dalles.

Lound was born Oct. 21, 1930, in Pocatello, Idaho, to Frank E. Lound and Jean Dusten Lound. He graduated from Washington High School in Portland in 1949 and served in the U.S. Navy from 1950 to 1954, as a dental assistant.

Lound had found memories as a child, staying with his father in the Edward Hines Lumber Company employee bunk house in Hines and visiting his grandfather's ranch on the Middle Fork of the John Day River between Bates and Susanville.

Lound married Virgie Maxine Averill Turnbull and had two daughters.

He attended the Shrine Temple Al Kader in Wilsonville, the Masonic Lodge in Canyon City and the John Day Elks Lodge.

Lound was preceded in death by his wife, Virgie. He is survived by his daughters, Melissa Anne Scarbrough of Pace, Florida, and Rebecca Sue Lound of Goldendale, Washington; a stepdaughter Robyn Ford-Turnbull of Vancouver, Washington; a stepson, Steven Turnbull of St. Louis, Missouri; three grandsons; and three step-grandchildren.

Carlton O'Neil Johnson

Oct. 23, 1939 - March 2, 2017

Carlton O'Neil Johnson, 78, passed away March 2 in Grants Pass at the home he built.

Johnson was born in Jonesborough, Arkansas, to Delbert O'Neil and Mildred Barker Oct. 23, 1939. He graduated high school in Walden Colorado in 1958 and enlisted in the Navy. After four years of service, he was honorably discharged with the rank of petty officer first class.

While utilizing the GI bill, he enrolled at the University of Northern Colorado and graduated in 1968 with a master's degree in liberal arts. After graduation, he began his career in teaching as a student teacher in Walden, Colorado. He accepted his first full time teaching position in John Day, where he worked as a welding and auto mechanics teacher.

He then moved to Grants Pass and continued his teaching career as a shop teacher at Hidden Valley High School. During this time, he also was involved as a coach, athletic director and many school functions. He then moved into the administrative side and ultimately retired as the principal at Hidden Valley High School. While in these various positions, he positively impacted the lives of many students with his straightforward, unfailing leadership. During his downtime, Johnson enjoyed many activities including camping, fishing, hunting and any form of craftsmanship that involved wood and metal.

Johnson with his late wife, Judy, built their dream home in the countryside outside Grants Pass where they enjoyed many memories until their passing.

He is survived by his sons Karl, Kerry, Kelly and Sean Johnson and their eight grandchildren.

Lee Sherwood Sanders

March 8, 1926 - March 5, 2017

Lee Sherwood Sanders, 90, of Lakeview died at Lake District Hospital Sunday, March 5, 2017.

He was born to Harvey and Alice (Sherwood) Sanders in Lakeview on March 8, 1926. Sanders grew up in Lakeview and was a member of the Lakeview High School class of 1944. After completing his education, he worked for the Lake County Road Department until Nov. 30, 1948, when he enlisted in the U.S. Army. He served his country honorably for 20 years and served in Korea and Vietnam during both of those wars.

After retiring from the military, Sanders settled in John Day. His marriage to Gloria in 1973 later ended in a divorce. On June 8, 1982, he and Barbra Blackburn were married in Winnemucca, Nevada.

Sanders drove lumber trucks, school buses and anything else that was available. After leaving John Day, he moved to Burns and worked with the Harney County Road Department for five years and then returned to Grant County to work as a security guard in a sawmill. He also worked for the U.S. Forest Service and managed the John Day and Burns theaters.

The couple returned to Lakeview in 2000, where he stayed busy donating time to the VFW Post 4070, the Lakeview Lions Club and the Lake County Senior Center.

Sanders enjoyed bowling, going for drives, collecting Budweiser beer steins and volunteering.

He is survived by his wife, Barbra, of Lakeview; daughter and son-in-law Tammy and Chap Whipp of Oregon City; sister Betty Elliott of Prairie City; stepdaughter and husband, Vivian and Ernie Walston of Forest Grove; and five grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a sister and brother.

A memorial service was held March 14 at the Lakeview United Methodist Church with inurnment in the New Pine Creek Cemetery. Military honors were provided by the Lakeview VFW Post 4070.

Contributions in Sanders' memory may be made to the Lakeview Lions Club Sight and Hearing Fund, P.O. Box 228, Lakeview, OR 97630, or to a charity of the donor's choice.

Desert Rose Funeral Chapel was in charge of the arrangements.

Margie Gengler-Baughman

June 7, 1932 - Feb. 9, 2017

Margie Gengler-Baughman, "Mother Margie," 84, of Ontario passed away Feb. 9 at St. Alphonsus Medical Center in Ontario, after yielding to the complications of pneumonia.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Jerry Baughman, of 41 years, and her parents, Nettie and Nick Gengler of Prairie City. She is survived by five daughters, Rosetta Riley of Haines, Vernetta Stewart of Seattle, Washington, Barbara Jones of Salem, Loretta Casselman of Middleton, Idaho, and Marley Bratcher of Medford; 11 grandchildren; and many great-grandchildren.

Gengler-Baughman was born in Crofton, Nebraska, June 7, 1932, and subsequently traveled to Vale with her parents who farmed there for many years before traveling to Prairie City. She lived in this community for over 50 years, which she identified as her home. Her faith in God was only rivaled by that of her parents, all of whom attended the Assembly of God church. Her interests included making music with a variety of instruments including guitar, as well as singing, camping, hunting and gardening, when not caring for her grandchildren. She also enjoyed the thrill of riding on the back of a motorcycle with friends.

A celebration of her life will take place at 1 p.m. Saturday, June 10, at the Assembly of God church in Prairie City, with Pastor Lee Teague officiating. The public is invited.

Dayville School's sixth- through 12th-grade students spent March 2 on the slopes at Anthony Lakes Ski Resort.

The ski trip had a focus on physical education, life-long sports and activities that promote wellness, said Superintendent/Principal Kathryn Hedrick.

Each student, no matter their skill level, had a lesson from experienced Anthony Lakes ski instructor Karen Hunt.

Hedrick said the ski resort, near Baker City, is accessible both by proximity and price. The cost was $30 per student for gear, lesson and skiing.

Joining the ski trip were 19 Dayville students, one home school student and six adults, including Hedrick, three teachers, the bus driver and the head cook.

"That is the beauty of a small school," she said.

Put Your Best Smile Forward
Dr. Mike feels routine checkups and cleaning are essential, especially for children and adolescents, to keep dental work as simple as possible. Catching decay problems early with regular exams, allows placing smaller fillings, often lasting for decades. Making the effort to keep up on your dental health will pay off for your overall health and, ultimately, be easier on your pocketbook too!
