Students present familiar tunes at 'A Night at the Movies!' concert

Lori Hart leads finale concert at Grant Union

It was as if the Grant Union Junior-Senior High School bleachers were theater seats May 23 as Grant Union and Humbolt Elementary musicians in grades 6 through 12 presented the "A Night at the Movies!" concert.

The familiar music included songs from movies such as "The Little Mermaid," "Mary Poppins," "Jurassic Park," "Harry Potter" and "Phantom of the Opera."

Director Lori Hart said even though she selected the music, the students helped it come alive with their effort and enthusiasm.

"I loved the concert," Hart said. "I was so proud of the kids and their work."

Hart, who led about 90 students in the spring concert, started teaching music at Grant School District No. 3 in January.

"This school year must have been hard on the students, getting a brand new teacher mid-year, but they have all been fantastic to work with," she said. "I have loved being able to teach and learn from them every day."

Four seniors were honored during the concert, including four-year members of the music program Rose Allen (clarinet), James Mabe (tenor) and Shiranne Carter (soprano), and one-year member foreign exchange student

Students selected for Music in May Festival

Three Grant Union students traveled to Forest Grove, joining 400 student musicians for the May 25-27 Music in May Festival. The participating students come from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and California.

Alyssa Hoffman (French horn), Samantha Floyd (trombone) and Manao Kanazawa (soprano) performed in the grand finale concert May 27 at the Stoller Center.

Selections are based on music directors' recommendations and the needs of the Music in May ensembles.

The three guest conductors included

Clark Potter (orchestra), professor of conducting from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln; Joey Martin (choir), director of choral activities, Texas State University, San Marcos; and Charles Menghini (band), president, Vandercook College of Music, Chicago, Illinois.

Michael Burch-Pesses, director of Music in May, conducted the combined ensembles in "America the Beautiful" to conclude the festival. Twenty-two Pacific University students served as mentors to the high school students during the festival.

Manao Kanazawa (soprano).

Students also presented their music teacher with flowers.

"The students at Humbolt and Grant Union are a special group of kids, and I am honored to be able to teach them," Hart said.

"I am excited to say that I will be here next year continuing to teach second- through 12th-grade music."

Thank You
The family of Myrtha Fields wishes to express our appreciation for the care and kindness given and expressed by all of those who touched her life. We thank the staff at Valley View Assisted Living and the Blue Mountain Care Center, friends who visited her, called or sent cards, and those taking the time to visit a bit and bringing some joy into her life when they encountered her. To those able to attend Myrtha's memorial service, we felt blessed that you were able to help us celebrate her life. We give a heartfelt thank you to her friends, ex-students, caregivers and family members.
Sincerely,
Roger and Meredith Ediger
