

The Eagle/Angel Carpenter

Children dash out for candy during the Prairie City Fourth of July Parade, which had a "Spirit of 1776" theme.

FOURTH OF JULY

The Eagle/Rylan Boggs

M.P. Smith and Stephanie Gilbert play cornhole at the Monument Fourth of July Jubilee.

Contributed photo/Gaylene Pruit

From left: Reiba Carter Smith, Cauline Ferguson and Linda Studtmann were among those gathered at Long Creek's eighth annual Founder's Day Celebration on the Fourth of July.

The Eagle/Angel Carpenter

Four-year-old Hayla Reilly rides as a rodeo princess in the Prairie City Fourth of July Parade. She won the sweepstakes prize, representing Mountain View Mini Mart.

Contributed photo/Jeanne Strange

Weston Hamilton prepares to throw candy during the parade at the Monument Jubilee July 4.

Contributed photo/Tabitha Rossman

Edward Guzman, right, and his wife, Rose, compete in Prairie City's July 4 log sawing competition, finishing second.

The Eagle/Rylan Boggs

Rowdy Israel, left, and Trinity Hutchison wave to spectators during the Dayville Fourth of July parade.