Fire regulations in effect

Blue Mountain Eagle

Fire regulations are in effect throughout Grant County.

The Grant County Fire Defense District, along with city and rural fire departments, has implemented regulated closure, and people are encouraged to check with local jurisdictions for specific regulations.

The Forest Service and the Oregon Department of Forestry have implemented regulations as well. Check with the agencies for full, up-to-date restrictions.

As of today, in most areas, regulations will include the prohibition of chainsaw use from 1-8 p.m., of smoking outside vehicles and of off-road travel as well as campfire restrictions.

ODF lands are in regulated closure.

The Malheur National Forest implemented Industrial Fire Precaution Level II and Phase A of the public use restrictions. The Umatilla and Wallowa-Whitman national forests have implemented the same.

For more information about the Malheur National Forest, visit fs.usda.gov/malheur or call 541-575-4300. For more information about ODF lands, visit odfcentraloregon.com or call 541-263-0661.

Scott and Sandy Campbell, owners of The Retreat and Links at Silvies Valley Ranch, enjoy a burger Friday with their invited guests.

Silvies Valley Ranch owners show retreat and golf links

By Angel Carpenter

Blue Mountain Eagle

Scott and Sandy Campbell rolled out the welcome mat Friday, July 7, for a tour of their state-of-the-art facilities at The Retreat and Links at Silvies Valley Ranch.

Over 20 Grant County community leaders enjoyed a first peek at the property located about five miles south of Seneca.

Tygh Campbell led the group in golf carts for a tour of the grounds, sharing the progress and plans laid out for the resort.

He explained the work that went into creating golf courses, including the Egan Course, Craddock and Hankins reversible championship 18-hole courses and the seven-hole ridge course and mountain meadow nine-hole par 3 course.

Visitors walked inside the off-grid Chief Egan Hideout, a clubhouse powered by solar energy, where Tygh answered questions.

A spa, complete with a lap pool, workout area, climbing wall and a place for massages and facials, is planned for next year.

The tour included the reception area and gift shop, which has horse stables nearby, and the luxury apartments and cabins, which overlook a pond.

There are a total of 36 rooms.

A dinner, held at the lodge deck, included "mile-high" hamburgers and apple crisp for dessert.

The Campbells said they hope to attract world travelers to the ranch, and the resort is open to Grant and Harney county residents as well, with discounted prices for golfing and the restaurant.

So far, there are 93 people employed at Silvies Ranch with 140-160 jobs expected by 2020.

Comments open for Flat project

The 30-day comment period for the Preliminary Environmental Assessment for the Flat Vegetation Management Project on the Emigrant Creek and Blue Mountain ranger districts began June 21.

The Flat project area encompasses approximately 47,500 acres in the Camp Creek, Dog Creek-Silvies River, Flat Creek-Silvies River and Mountain Creek subwatersheds, within Grant and Harney counties. The Flat Project proposes a suite of activities including vegetation management and fuels treatments, evaluation of the road systems and riparian, meadow, aspen, sagebrush steppe and upland restoration treatments.

The project documents can be accessed at fs.usda.gov/project/?project=47364, by contacting Lori Bailey or Melissa Ward at 541-573-4300 or by emailing comments-pacificnorthwest-malheur-emigrantcreek@fs.fed.us.

County addresses abandoned pets

Grant County Judge Scott Myers declared an emergency regarding abandoned pets left behind from this summer's events.

Abandoned or unclaimed animals will be held by Grant County for a period of three days, after which they will become the property of the county, and will be sent to a shelter for adoption or possible euthanasia. For more information, call 541-575-0059.

BABY STEPS

Birth & Beyond

We believe having a baby means so much more than just labor and delivery. Prenatal classes help parents feel calm and confident with the birthing process, while reducing the duration of labor. Parents also gain a profound awareness of the importance of their role. The first 1,000 days of a child's life provide the foundation for success in school and in life.

This prenatal class will cover:

- Touring the family birthing unit
- Prenatal and postpartum nutrition
- Relief of common discomforts during pregnancy
- Creating a birth plan
- Stages of Labor
- Comfort Measures & relaxation tools during labor
