

Your journey is just beginning

The Eagle/Cheryl Hoefler
Trails, boating, fishing and camping await outdoor adventurers at Olive Lake, about 13 miles west of Granite.

The Eagle/Rylan Boggs
About 5 miles east of Prairie City on Highway 26, the covered wagon viewpoint commemorating the Oregon Trail provides scenic views of the John Day Valley and displays with information on the area.

The Eagle/Rylan Boggs
The Painted Hills, one of three units in the John Day Fossil Beds National Monument, was named one of the Seven Wonders of Oregon by Travel Oregon. The site is about 9 miles northwest of the town of Mitchell, which is about 37 miles west of Dayville. The unit features many short trails, from .25-1.6 miles, providing different perspectives of the red, yellow and black clay hills.
