Shilo Burton-Harper of Mt. Vernon with a buck she hunted in the Northside Unit. Burton said she spotted the deer at 500 yards and tracked him within 40 yards for the kill.

Long-time Mt. Vernon resident Susan Horn bagged this buck in the Murderers Creek Unit this year. Horn has been battling glioblastoma, an aggressive brain cancer, for two years.

Rylee Browning 14, took this 5x5 bull during the first rifle season of 2016 with her Ruger Model 77 7-mm 08.

Sage Browning 11, with his 2016 antelope he took with his .50-caliber muzzleloader through the mentor program.

Hailey McConnell shot this wide-antlered buck.

Morgan Cole, 9, shot her first buck with one shot at 120 yards in the mentored youth program.
