She added, "All my friends taught me so much about how they do track, and it's probably something I won't forget."

All three girls added an optional stop in Hawaii to their 12-day trip, where they enjoyed snorkeling and more time with new friends.

Each of the girls held fundraisers for several months leading up to the trip, including a firewood raffle, golf scramble, spaghetti feed and cookie dough sales, as well as working at other jobs.

They all said the trip was well worth the effort.

"I'm really glad that I decided to stick with it, because I wouldn't be where I am without that experience," Wright said. "All the friends I made there and everything, it was definitely worth all my hard work to get there." and shot put)," she said. "And 'coach D' taught me that I need to be throwing at a 45 degree angle (for discus and shot put)."

She said the other teams had an advantage because they use lighter implements at a younger age, gradually working their way up in weight, in all the throwing events.

Jumping in with a new team, she said, was a valuable experience.

"When I go off to college, it will help," she said.

Humphreys, who competed in javelin, said she enjoyed getting out and meeting new people in the sport.

In leisure time, some of her favorite activities included visiting a wild kangaroo field and then a zoo, where she petted tame kangaroos and saw emus, wombats and koalas.

Wright said it was fun to shop and eat at different restaurants, but more importantly, she said, she learned to keep an open mind to what others have to say.

She said the Australians she met have year-round track and focus on healthy nutrition. Many are also working toward competing at college and training for the Olympics.

"I learned a lot from the Australian girls," Wright said. "Their level compared to our level is so much more in depth."

She added, "All my friends taught me so much about how they do track, and it's probably something I won't forget."

Panthers defeat Spartans

By Angel Carpenter
Blue Mountain Eagle

Strong serving from several Lady Panthers helped Prairie City secure a 3-0 win Friday over the Pine Eagle Spartans.

The Panthers won at their home court with scores of 25-9, 25-6 and 25-9.

"We had a light week as far as competition goes, but the girls maintained good focus and intensity, working on team elements that will benefit them as the season progresses," said Prairie City head coach Lance Zweygardt.

He said he's happy with the positive chemistry the team is building.

Prairie City's Cassie Hire served 100 percent with eight aces out of 18 serves.

Teammate Mariah McClung had seven aces and was 94 percent on 18 serves, and Rilee Emmel also had seven aces, with 88 percent on 16 serves.

The Panthers also had no serve receive errors and only one passing error.

Prairie City will host Burnt River at 4 p.m. Friday.

The Panthers travel for the Interleague Jamboree in North Powder on Saturday.

The action starts at 8 a.m., and opponents at the event include Cove, Harper, Pine Eagle, Huntington, Joseph and Dayville/Monument.

Tigers topple Hornets in Dayville

Blue Mountain Eagle

The Monument/Dayville volleyball team hosted the Harper Hornets Friday, the Tigers claiming a 3-0 victory in Dayville.

Monument/Dayville won with scores of 25-15, 25-16, 25-4. The Tigers will compete at the Interleague Jamboree at 8 a.m. Saturday in North Powder.

The competition at the jamboree includes Prairie City, Cove, Harper, Pine Eagle, Huntington and Joseph.

Monument/Dayville will face Mitchell/Spray on the road at 5 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 19, in Spray.

Tie Breaker		Score

RULES:

1. Displayed in this advertisement are 20 sports-minded businesses. In 15 of these ads you'll find listed an important game scheduled for this weekend.
2. Each game is numbered. Clip the original blank entry and write, in numerical order, the advertiser's name and the team you think will win the game listed in the ad.
3. Game No. 15 will be the tiebreaker every week. Simply write in what you think the final score will be for each team. When the tiebreaker is necessary to determine a winner, the closest point spread will be the deciding factor.
4. Only one entry per person permitted - but all members of the family may enter provided they use the blank entry. Must be 10 years old to enter. Entries must be brought to the Blue Mountain Eagle in John Day no later than 5 p.m. FRIDAY. Or you can mail your entry to: Football Editor, 195 N. Canyon Blvd., John Day, OR, 97845 but make sure it is postmarked no later than Friday and received by the Blue Mountain Eagle by noon Monday. OR you can fax your original entry to (541) 575-1244, Attn: Football Editor.
5. Employees of the Blue Mountain Eagle or members of their immediate families are not eligible for prize money.
6. Winners will be announced in the Wednesday paper following the games. $50 in cash and prizes will be awarded to the winner. In case of a tie, the prize will be split. Contest ends in 13 weeks.
