

Six students graduate from EOU

Blue Mountain Eagle

Six students graduated from Eastern Oregon University.

Mikayla Ernestine Luttrell of John Day graduated magna cum laude with a degree in multidisciplinary studies and elementary education, as well as a degree in PK-12. Michael J. Luttrell of John Day graduated cum laude with a mathematics degree. Katrina Marie Page of John Day earned a degree in liberal studies with two EOU minors.

Daryl Ann Powell of Dayville graduated cum laude with degree in biology. Shyanne L. Winters of Dayville graduated with a degree in music.

Tavis Martin Crittenden of Long Creek graduated with a degree in PK-12.

EOU awarded 639 bachelor's degrees, 107 master's degrees, five associate degrees and two certificates during the 2016-17 academic year. Students graduating with honors earned a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or above. Those who earned GPAs between 3.5 and 3.69 graduated with cum laude honors, 3.7 to 3.84 graduated magna cum laude, and 3.85 to 4.0 graduated summa cum laude.

Contributed photo

From left, Barb Wagner, Brent Bartley, Steve Allen and Dan Gourley pose for a photo at the Blue Mountain Healthcare Foundation Scramble Aug. 27 at the John Day Golf Club.

Healthcare foundation scramble raises $7,000

Blue Mountain Eagle

On Aug. 27, golfers teed off to raise money for equipment and projects for Blue Mountain Hospital District at the Blue Mountain Healthcare Foundation Scramble at the John Day Golf Club.

This year, the foundation's goals are to raise $40,000 to update the heating and refrigeration at the Blue Mountain Care Center in Prairie City. Preliminary results show about $7,000 raised at the golf tournament. Not only do the 46 golfers contribute to this goal, but many businesses and individuals support the tournament as well.

By early afternoon, all the golfers were back at the clubhouse, ready for the barbecue rib dinner being prepared by Tim Unterwegner and Chris Cronin. Prior to the meal, door prizes donated by Ansel and Judy Krutsinger were given away, followed by the awards for play.

In gross results, first place went to the Oster Professional Group team of Mitch Saul, Brad Armstrong, Alex Finlayson and Torin Foster, and second place went to the Southworth Brothers team of Brad Smith, Billy Colson, Matt Wenick and Jay Kenyon. In net results, first place went to the Roof Creek Gutter team of Scott Myers, Charlie Wilson, Connor Bromeling and Colt Carpenter, and second place went to Dr. Thomas' team of Brandon Sickler, Keith Thomas, Greg Jennings and Bob Houser.

Besides being a fundraiser, the tournament has fun, too, and awards the teams with the highest gross and net scores. The highest gross went to Team Mosier: Brenda Mosier, Carmen Gardner, Wanda Winegar and Denise Houser. Highest net went to the Duke Warner Realty team of Jena Knowles, Sally Knowles, Jessica Knowles and Shae Voigt.

Other awards presented were KP (closest drive to the cup on holes 4 and 13) to Sally Knowles and Gary Miller, and long drive to Nita Van Voorhis and Connor Bromeling. All of the winners donated their cash awards back to the foundation.

The next event will be the annual dinner and auction on Oct. 21. This event will be held at the John Day Elks Lodge, and the theme this year is "An Elegant Evening."

TODD ALAN BERRY

Todd Alan Berry, 46, of John Day, Oregon, passed away August 24, 2017, in John Day, Oregon. A remembrance and potluck will be held September 22, 2017 at Holliday State Park, Mount Vernon, Oregon. starting at 4:00 PM.

Todd was born March 15, 1971, to Steven W. Berry and Reba A. Dickens in Burns, Oregon. In 1990 Todd graduated from Mt. Vernon High School, in Mt. Vernon, Oregon. After high school Todd attended Treasure Valley Community College in Ontario, Oregon. Todd also worked in the oil fields of North Dakota and became an amazing truck driver. Todd most recently worked with the Department of Public Works for the City of John Day, Oregon. Todd dated Billie Jo Elliott for 5 years before the couple married on December 8, 2016, in Canyon City, Oregon.

Todd accomplished many things in his life, and could do and figure out anything he put his mind to. One of "Papa" Todd's proudest accomplishments in life was his grandchildren, who he loved very much.

Todd was baptized at a young age alongside his brother Richie, and believed in God. Some of Todd's hobbies included fishing, bird hunting, BBQing, playing guitar, camping, hiking, mushrooming and horn hunting.

Todd is preceded in death by his mother Reba Berry; grandmother and grandfather Dickens; grandmother and grandfather Berry.

Todd is survived by his wife Billie Berry of John Day, Or.; father Steve Berry of Mount Vernon, Or.; brother Richie Berry of Dayville, Or.; daughter Jessica Berry Williams and son-in-law Cody Williams of Bates, Or.; daughter Amanda Berry Curtis and son-in-law Rayce Curtis of Portland, Or.; grandson Kayson Williams of Bates, Or.; stepdaughter Sunnie Moore of Kimberly, Or.; grandson Jaxon Williams of Bates, Or. and granddaughter Coraline Curtis of Portland, Or.

Memorial contributions can be made to assist the family with funeral expenses through the John Day branch U.S. Bank or Driskill Memorial Chapel.

To light a candle in honor of Todd or to leave condolences for his family, please visit www.driskillmemorialchapel.com.

Paid for by the family of Todd Berry.

OBITUARIES

Agatha Sofie Immoos

Nov. 27, 1918 - Aug. 28, 2017

Agatha Sofie Immoos, 98, of Richland, Oregon, passed away Aug. 28, 2017, in Baker City, Oregon. A memorial service will be held on Friday, Sept. 15, 2017, at 11 a.m. at the United Methodist Church in Richland, Oregon. Interment at Eagle Valley Cemetery. Friends are invited to join the family for a potluck reception (side dishes and desserts) at the Eagle Valley Grange.

Agatha, Aggie to most, was born Nov. 27, 1918, to Sverin and Anna Betschart in Baar, Switzerland. In 1931 at the age of 13 she, her mother and two older sisters, Annie and Hedy, made the journey from Switzerland to the New York Harbor. From there they traveled to Galt, California, to join her father who had come the year before and found work on a dairy.

At the age of 15, Aggie found work as a nanny for Anthony and Gladys Kennedy, caring for their two sons and daughter. Aggie was always proud of the fact that she helped in raising the boy who would become U.S. Supreme Court Justice Anthony Kennedy.

On March 6, 1937, Aggie married Lawrence Immoos. While in California, they welcomed three sons, Robert, William and Lawrence. While their children were young they moved the family to Oregon, purchasing a ranch in Vale, Oregon. They spent 10 years there, eventually moving to Bates, Oregon, where they built the Austin House. They sold this business in 1963 and moved briefly to Joseph, Oregon, and then returned to Bates. In 1970, Lawrence and Aggie retired and made their home in Richland, Oregon, spending most of their final years there. Lawrence passed away in 1982, and Aggie stayed there until last October when she moved to Meadowbrook Place Assisted Living in Baker City, Oregon.

Aggie enjoyed traveling, returning several times to her home country of Switzerland. She saw other parts of Europe, Mexico and much of the United States. She spent many summers camping and fishing with her family and was an accomplished knitter. Aggie took pride in her appearance, never leaving the house without looking her best. She had a surprising sense of humor that will be missed by her friends and family.

Aggie was preceded in death by her parents, husband Lawrence, sisters Annie and Hedy, son William, and grandson Patrick Immoos. She is survived by sons Robert and Lawrence, daughter-in-law Charlene Immoos, seven grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, 14 great-great grandchildren and special friend Walt Saunders.

For those who would like to make a memorial donation in memory of Aggie, the family suggests the Eagle Valley Ambulance through Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home & Cremation Services P.O. Box 543 Halfway, Oregon 97834. Online condolences may be shared at www.tamispinevalley-funeralhome.com

Dewayne Roe

A celebration of life and potluck will be held for Gerald Dewayne Roe at 1 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 23, at Riverside Park in La Grande.

Roe, 81, of John Day passed away Saturday, July 29, at Rosemary Manor under the care of hospice in John Day.

About Obituaries

News obituaries are a free service of the Blue Mountain Eagle. The paper accepts obituaries from the family or funeral home. Information submitted is subject to editing. Obituaries submitted to the Eagle with incorrect information may be corrected and republished as paid notices. Send obituaries by email, editor@bmeagle.com; fax, 541-575-1244; or mail, 195 N. Canyon Blvd., John Day, OR 97845. For more information, or to inquire about a paid memorial, call 541-575-0710.

EVERETT WILLIAM HOLLADAY

Everett William Holladay, 79, formerly of John Day, passed away Thursday, Aug. 3, in San Antonio, Texas. A memorial service will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, Sept. 15, at Driskill Memorial Chapel in John Day.

Holladay was born Feb. 12, 1938, to Leo Holladay and Bertha Schell in Canyon County, Idaho. After graduating from Vale High School, Holladay joined the U.S. Navy where he served for six years. He then went on to work for Western States Caterpillar as a parts and service manager for 35 years, retiring in 2000. He married Mary Anita De Mastus on Feb. 17, 1962, in Ontario.

Holladay is remembered by his friends and family as a man with a quick wit and a person whom you could always count on to be there when needed. He enjoyed gardening, traveling and spending time with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary Holladay; brother Connie Holladay; and sister Rose Lee Holladay.

He is survived by his sons William Holladay of Corvallis and Schann Holladay of San Antonio, Texas; and sister Verona Borton of Hood River.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society through Driskill Memorial Chapel.

To leave condolences for the family, visit driskillmemorialchapel.com.

Paid for by the family of Everett Holladay

Michael B. DesJardin Dentistry, PC

Preventive, Restorative & Endodontics

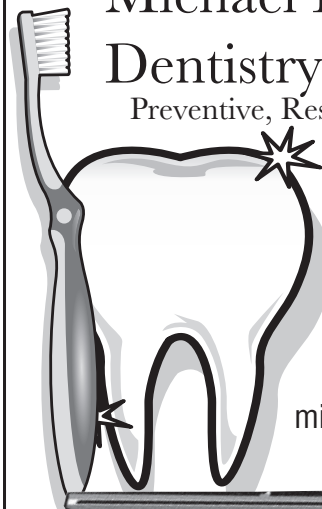

New Patients Welcome!

208 NW Canton John Day

541-575-2725

mbddental@live.com

michaeldesjardindmd.com

LAST WEEK'S TEMPS

JOHN DAY	H/I/LO
WEDNESDAY.....	87/63
THURSDAY.....	88/57
FRIDAY.....	86/56
SATURDAY.....	87/57
SUNDAY.....	83/54
MONDAY.....	91/58
TUESDAY.....	89/54

24/7 FORECAST

AUTOMATED: 541-575-1122

ROAD CONDITIONS: 511; TRIPCHECK.COM
WWW.BLUEMOUNTAINEAGLE.COM/INFO

NOAA WEATHER RADIO FOR JOHN DAY
162.500 MHZ

WEATHER FORECAST FOR THE WEEK OF SEPT. 6-12

Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday
Clouds and sun	Passing showers	Clouds and sun	Sunny and warmer	Partly sunny	Possible thunderstorms	Partly sunny
80	63	62	67	76	91	89
47	43	37	40	46	58	54