

Stewart Scholarship awards announced

Blue Mountain Eagle

A total of 120 Grant County students in higher education have been awarded the 2017-2018 Stewart Scholarship.

The distribution amount was $576,000, and most of the awards were $5,000.

The amount available depends on how the stock market performs, and this year's sum is up by $8,600 from last year.

The scholarships benefit Grant County students of all ages who qualify, thanks to the late benefactors Wayne Stewart of Dayville and his son Eminger Stewart III of Mt. Vernon, who made provisions in their wills to set up a perpetual education fund upon their death.

The funds are managed by the U.S. Bank's private client group in Bend. Recipients can use the funds for undergraduate, trade or graduate school educational expenses, up to a total of five years.

For more information about the scholarship, visit grant.k12.or.us, and click on the "Stewart Scholarship" at the bottom right of the page.

OBITUARIES

Lynne Marie Wilson
Dec. 18, 1943 - Sept. 21, 2017

Lynne Marie Wilson, 73, a longtime John Day resident, passed away Thursday, Sept. 21, at home, surrounded by family. At her request, no services will be held. Her remains were cremated, and a small family gathering will be held at a later date.

Wilson was born Dec. 18, 1943, in Newberg to Zelmer L. and Eva M. (Noland) Culver. She attended high school in Junction City, graduating in 1962.

Wilson loved music, teaching and playing the fiddle. She played fiddle in several bands, the last being Yarrow. Although she mostly taught violin, she was gifted with a natural ability to play any instrument. She especially enjoyed jamming with friends and family. She enjoyed the outdoors, Arizona desert, wildlife, fishing and huckleberry picking. She will be remembered for her quick-witted sense of humor and missed by many.

She is survived by children Jeff (Brenda) Gran of Front Royal, Virginia; Karen (Walter) Rodriguez of John Day; and Debbie (Daran) Sagvold of McLeod, North Dakota; sibling Robert (Billy) Culver of Murphy, North Carolina; 10 grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

CORRECTION

In a story last week about Prairie City City Council, it was incorrectly stated Councilwoman Carole Garrison voted on a proposal for a cellphone tower. Garrison abstained from voting on the issue. In the same article, Public Works Director Chris Camarena was paraphrased as stating the city water pumps were on "borrowed time" when he was actually referring to the city sewer pumps. The Eagle regrets the errors.

Obituary for Henry "Butch" Goslin

Henry "Butch" Goslin passed away on October 11, 2017 in his home surrounded by his loved ones. His death was following a courageous 10 month battle with esophagus cancer.

Butch was born in Prairie City, Oregon to Hank and Naomi Goslin on June 10th of 1954. He attended school in Grant County and graduated from Prairie City high school in 1973. Over his life he had many jobs including working for the forest service and many years of doing construction with his longtime friend Shannon Voigt. He was also the second-generation owner of his father's business "Hanks Sanitation".

However, work was not what life was about for Butch, in fact he often referred to it as a "four letter word". He had lots of things he truly enjoyed doing like hunting, fishing, reloading, traveling, and spending time with his friends and family to name a few. To him life was about living to the fullest no matter the cost. He put his heart and soul into everything that he did and left a piece with every person that he met.

Anyone that knew Butch knows what an impact he had on those around him. He was known for having a heart of gold and of course a way with the ladies, who he was never seen without.

He was preceded in death by his parents Hank and Naomi Goslin, grandparents, and a few good ol' boys along the way. He is survived by his daughter Lacy Goslin of Pocatello, Idaho, significant other Chelsey McDaniel of Prairie City, Oregon, sister Lynette (Jim) Sullens and their children Tiffany, Jeremy and Brady of Prairie City, Oregon, extended family Chuck and Marti Boatman, Larry and Nanci Norris, Talon and Taron Case of Burns, Oregon, and also by his lifelong friend and brother Shannon Voigt and the Voigt family of Prairie City, Oregon.

A memorial "poker party" is scheduled in his honor on November 4th in Prairie City, Oregon. It will be held where he was known for spending his time, the shop, at 642 N. Johnson St, Prairie City, Oregon. There will be a potluck dinner beginning at 4:00 pm so please bring a dish to share. We will be playing cards and sharing stories around 6:00 PM and will end the night Butch Goslin style.

It was his wish that in lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be to Angel Wings Network which provides assistance to cancer patients and their families through Driskill Memorial Chapel at 241 S. Canyon Blvd., John Day, OR 97845.
