

Hilton Half for family fun

Blue Mountain Eagle

Sandwiched between two snowy days, participants in Saturday's Hilton Half and Family Fun Run in Prairie City enjoyed a sunny race day.

Themed "Everyone deserves a hero!" the event is held in memory of ambulance director TR Hilton, and proceeds support the Families First home visitation program in John Day.

"The kids superhero try-outs were fun to watch," said organizer Katrina Randleas. There were eight kids who participated in the obstacle course, which was set up at Depot Park in Prairie City.

The Garmin GPS running watches went to the top female and male finishers of the half marathon and the 10K.

Barry Dew crossed the finish line first with a time of 1:41:59 in the half marathon, and the first female was Kayla Layden, finishing with a time of 1:49:37.

In the 10K, Zachary Shockey was the first male finisher with a mark of 43:22, and Jessica Madden was the first-place female with 44:45.

 The 5K top placers, Tanner Elliott and Erika Dickens, received a 32 oz. hydro flask.
 "Everyone enjoyed the prizes," Randleas said.
 She said she hopes more people will participate next year and noted the planning committee plans to keep the race on the first weekend of November.

Fun run and walk held in memory of preemie sibling

Blue Mountain Eagle

Grant Union senior Cody Jo Madden is making her senior project a memorable one.

Madden held an event called McKalee's Halloween Fun Run/Walk on Oct. 28 in honor of her younger sibling, a premature baby who passed away May 28, 2003.

Three of McKalee's siblings helped with the event, including Cody Jo, Shaine and Brogan.

More than 20 participants ran or walked the route from Canyon City's park to the John Day City Park and back while helping Madden raise over $600.

Madden is still raising money, with all proceeds going to the March of Dimes Foundation, through T-shirt sales and a can drive.

The McKalee shirts are $20 each. For more information call Tammy at 541-620-4041 or Tim at 541-620-4445.
