quick defenders and a lot of dedication to practice.”

Kreamier scored 17 points in the game.

Studtmann said Kreamier and Combs are team captains and are showing leadership on the team, as well as Gumerato.

“Thomas Kreamier, a freshman, made a really good show in our first game as well, and we’re looking for a lot from him,” the coach added.

Preparing for the games, Studtmann said they’re focusing on basic skills — “All the fundamentals, every day we’re shooting, dribbling, rebounding, passing and working on stance and footwork.” He said they’re working to build not only skill development, but also basketball IQ.

“The boys understand that it’s not always about right now, it’s sometimes about the end of the season and next year,” Studtmann said. “We’re beginning with the end in mind.”

This season, the team will face junior varsity teams from Harper, Prairie City, Burnt River, Crane, Pilot Rock, Four Rivers and Adrian. They’ll also face Huntington’s varsity team for a total of 20 games.

“I’m happy to see more games than we’ve had in the past,” Studtmann said. “It’s good to test our skills against other teams, and the games are really what the kids are practicing for. The more games they get the more reward for their effort.”
