buckled down on defense.

In the final minutes of the fourth, Ukiah/Long Creek was unable to cash in on a jump ball and a couple steals, while the Tigers scored 7 for the nail-biter win.

Ukiah/Long Creek coach TC Conner said his team started slow but picked it up and played some good defense. At the end, he said, there was some "anxious passing."

"You can't stop and look at the scoreboard — then you start getting anxious," he said. "They fought to the end."

He added, "They were tired, but they all wanted to get back in."

Ukiah/Long Creek junior Gladys Johnson said it was a great game.

"We played our best and worked with each other," she said.

Schmadeka said he was happy with how his team battled.

"I'm proud of the girls for fighting for all the loose balls at the end of the game, bouncing back and coming out with the 1-point win," he said.

Tiger Miranda Cook said the competition Ukiah/Long Creek gave them made it a fun game.

"They were better than I thought they were going to be," she said.

Tiger Aubrey Werner added she was pleased with her team's passing and rebounding.

Her teammate Sam Adams said the game would be memorable mainly because she caught the flu, but added, "I was panicking with the scoreboard so tight, but I'm happy that we pulled it together as a team and managed to become one."

Prairie City girls fall to Adrian in OT

The Prairie City Panther girls basketball team started last week's competition off with a 44-16 win over Burnt River on Tuesday, but the Antelopes' full-court pressure in Adrian on Saturday proved too much.

"We played as good as we've played all year," said Panther head coach Bo Workman.

The Lady Panthers had a 16-point lead in the middle of the third quarter, but then the Antelopes applied strong defensive pressure in the fourth.

The teams were tied 42-42 going into overtime, and Adrian outscored Prairie City 8-4.

"Adrian is tough no matter what," Workman said. "They played full-court pressure, and we handled it well. Adrian just doesn't give up."

Workman said the key quality for his players, moving forward, will be mental toughness.

"We're playing close games with these better teams, and we're staying in the game. We just need to learn how to win the close ones," he said.

He added they're close to the other top five teams in the league.

"It's how it is every year — it's anybody's game," he said. "For my kids, especially, being mentally prepared for every game and keeping that throughout the whole game (is important). ... This game against Adrian has hopefully got our confidence up."

The Panther girls (8-7, 3-2, ranked No. 21) will host the Jordan Valley Mustangs (10-8, 6-0, ranked No. 20) at 5 p.m. Friday, and they face the Locomotives (1-12, 0-5) at 2 p.m. Saturday in Huntington.

Monument/Dayville teams compete with top in league

The Monument/Dayville Lady Tigers were hampered when a key starter was injured in their battles against the Adrian Antelopes and the Jordan Valley Mustangs last week. The Tigers fell 39-22 to Adrian on Friday in Monument, and 54-35 to the Mustangs on Saturday in Jordan Valley.

The Tigers were down 12-8 in the first quarter against the Antelopes, then caught fire in the second to tie the score, 17-17.

Adrian outshot Monument/Dayville 13-1 in the third.

"In the fourth, we played better defense, but it was hard to bounce back after the third quarter," said Tiger head coach Taylor Schmadeka. "We had some costly mistakes, but we never stopped playing hard."

Danielle Rhoda led the Tigers with 9 points, followed by Aubrey Bowlus with 6. Faythe Schafer had 5 steals.

Schmadeka said, although his team played hard, they ran out of steam against Jordan Valley.

"I knew it was going to be a hard battle at their place," he said. "We stuck with them for most of the game."

The Tigers were down 10-9 in the first and 25-16 at the half.

"We came out in the second half shooting good, but so did they," the coach said. "I'm very proud of how they played and attitudes both nights in two tough games."

Rhoda led the Tigers with 16 points, and Schafer had 11.

"Aubrey Bowlus and Denali Twehues played good defense both nights and got lots of rebounds for us," Schmadeka said. "Courtney Nichols did a good job filling the spot of one of our hurt starters."

The Monument/Dayville boys, in rebuilding mode this season, had a 63-38 loss to Adrian, followed by a 68-24 loss to Jordan Valley.

The Tiger teams will host the Huntington Locomotives on Friday, the girls at 6 p.m. and boys at 7:30 p.m., in Dayville and the Crane Mustangs at 2 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. Saturday in Monument.

At 5 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, the Tigers host Grant Union junior varsity in Dayville.

Mountain Lion boys notch 3 wins, girls 1 win

After the Ukiah/Long Creek boys defeated Monument/Dayville 59-34 on Jan. 16, they continued on the winning path Friday, defeating the Harper Hornets 56-52 in Long Creek. They followed up with a 46-22 victory over Four Rivers in Ontario Saturday.

Coach TC Conner said Friday's game was exciting.

"We were down against Harper, (but) we came back and pulled it out at the end," he said.

The Mountain Lions were down 30-16 at the half, then outshot Harper 14-8 in the third.

Conner said, after he and co-coach Amos Studtmann told the team to go with full-court pressure, they outshot the Hornets 32-8 in the fourth for the win.

Conner said several younger players contributed in the win against Four Rivers for the boys.

The Lady Mountain Lions had an uphill battle Friday and Saturday when two players were injured, one with a dislocated hip and another with a rolled ankle. Conner said those players still wanted to rejoin the game, but had to stay on the sidelines.

After a 37-25 loss to Harper, the girls gained a 27-22 win over Four Rivers in Ontario.

The Lady Mountain Lions had a 17-15 lead at the half against Harper, but then the visitors were able to pull away for the win.

Against Four Rivers, the teams were tied 11-11 at the half. Ukiah/Long Creek outscored 12-7 in the third and kept the lead in the fourth for the win.

The Mountain Lion teams faced Pilot Rock junior varsity on Tuesday, past press time.

The teams host Adrian junior varsity on Friday in Ukiah, 4 p.m. for the girls and 5:30 p.m. for the boys, and they travel Saturday to face Burnt River junior varsity in Unity at 2 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.

Conner said his goal is for the boys and girls teams to each think of themselves as one team.

"We're going to have to stay healthy and stay together," he said.

Introducing Wendy Cates - New Principal Broker/Owner Country Preferred Realtors

Wendy was born in Baker City, Oregon. Wendy was a year old when her mother obtained a teaching job in John Day and the family moved to Grant County. Her father worked for many years as the manager of Chester's Thriftway. She and her four sisters were raised in Canyon City. Her family had lots of animals and her favorite pastime was riding her horse. Wendy was recently married. She loves spending time with her children and grandchildren. Wendy also enjoys playing music including the violin and guitar. "Living in and loving Grant County for over 50 years gives me an advantage for selling real estate. I've been helping clients obtain their dream homes for over 16 years. I can't imagine living anywhere besides Grant County." I am extremely excited to become the Broker Owner of Country Preferred Realtors.

"We were extremely impressed with Wendy. She sold our vacation home in Grant County. She knows the area and made the entire process easy for us as we live in the metro area of Oregon." ~ JNC
