Roundtop Complex Grazing Allotments Project

30-Day Scoping Period

The Blue Mountain Ranger District of the Malheur National Forest is soliciting scoping comments regarding an environmental analysis to re-authorize grazing on five grazing allotments through the Roundtop Complex Grazing Allotments Project. The planning area includes the Beech Creek, Hergerger, John Day, McCullough, and Roundtop allotments north of John Day, Oregon.

The scoping package containing the proposed action descriptions and maps is available on the Malheur National Forest website at: <https://www.fs.usda.gov/project/?project=54067>. A hardcopy of the document can be obtained by contacting Hannah Smith (NEPA Planner) at the Malheur National Forest – Blue Mountain Ranger District, P.O. Box 909 / 431 Patterson Bridge Road, John Day, OR 97845; 541-575-3031, or hannahsmith@fs.fed.us.

Written, facsimile (FAX), hand-delivered, and electronic comments concerning this action will be accepted for 30 calendar days following publication of the Legal Notice in the Blue Mountain Eagle, John Day, OR. The publication date in the Blue Mountain Eagle is the exclusive means for calculating the scoping period for this proposal. Those wishing to comment should not rely on dates or timeframe information provided by any other source.

Written comments concerning the project may be submitted using the following methods:

- Postal mail or hand delivery: Blue Mountain Ranger District, c/o Hannah Smith, 431 Patterson Bridge Road / PO Box 909, John Day, OR 97845 (if hand delivering, submit during business hours 8:00am to 4:30pm, Monday through Friday, excluding holidays)
- E-mail message: comments-pacificnorthwest-malheur-bluemountain@fs.fed.us
- Fax: 541-575-3319

Written comments shall include:

- Your name
- Address
- Telephone number (if possible)
- Organization represented (if any) or private citizen
- Title of document on which the comment is being submitted
- Specific facts or comments along with supporting reasons that you believe the responsible official should consider in reaching a decision
- Signature (For objection eligibility each individual or representative from each entity must either sign the comments or verify identity upon request. In cases using an e-mail, a scanned signature is one way to provide verification.)

Comments received in response to this solicitation, including names and addresses of those who comment, will be considered part of the public record on this proposed action and will be available for public inspection. Comments submitted anonymously will be accepted and considered, but will not allow for standing to object to the project. Additionally, pursuant to 7 CFR 1.27(d), any person may request the agency to withhold a submission from the public record by showing how the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) permits such confidentiality. Requests for confidentiality may be granted in only very limited circumstances.

The proposed project is subject to the objection process pursuant to 36 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) 218, Subpart A. Only individuals and organizations who have submitted specific written comments related to the proposed Roundtop Complex Grazing Allotments Project during a designated opportunity for public comment may file and objection (36 CFR 218.5(a)).
