US Forest Service - Public Notice: On Friday, October 26, 2018, the Forest Service published a legal notice (“Legal Notice of Additional Opportunity to Submit a Request for Interested Person Status”) in The Oregonian regarding the Revised Land Management Plans (Forest Plans) for the Malheur, Umatilla, and Wallowa-Whitman National Forests (Blue Mountains). The 60-day objection-filing period ended on August 28, 2018, and the objection letters received by the Forest Service are available for public review at www.fs.usda.gov/goto/BlueMountainsPlanRevision. Due to the large volume of objections that the Forest Service had to process, as well as delays that occurred in mail services, there were objections that were not posted online for review during the initial 10-day filing period held in September. Therefore, the Forest Service has made these newly-posted objections available for review online and has announced an additional 10-day interested person filing period: October 27, 2018 through November 5, 2018. If you have already submitted a request for interested person status, your original request will be honored. You do not need to submit another request unless you are interested in one of the newly-posted objections. If you would like to submit an amended request or a new request, please follow the specific instructions provided in the legal notice available at www.fs.usda.gov/goto/BlueMountainsPlanRevision and also in The Oregonian. Written requests for recognition as an Interested Person (36 CFR 219.57) must be submitted no later than 10 days from the publication date of the legal notice in The Oregonian, that is, by 11:59pm Eastern (8:59pm Pacific) on Monday, Nov. 5, 2018. Requests will be considered by the Reviewing Officer, and eligible Interested Persons will be notified in advance of any objection-resolution meetings. These meetings will be open to observation by the public, and their date(s), location(s), and agenda(s) will be posted to the above website.
