ROUNDUP

Workman said he expects Condon/Wheeler will be competitive.

"They were a heck of a team last year," he said.

The Prairie City girls, led by Bo Workman, fell to Joseph on Friday, 43-28, and lost to Enterprise on Saturday, 47-26.

The coach was not available for comment.

Dayville/Monument boys fall in tournament games

The 1A Dayville/Monument Tiger boys had a challenge for their first games of the season, losing to both the 1A Arlington Honkers, 58-33, and the 1A Condon/Wheeler Knights, 71-39.

Although they didn't come up with wins, Tigers head coach Jeff Schafer said he was pleased with how they performed.

"Our goal is to keep communicating, work on aggressive defense, and gain endurance," the coach said. "My players desire to do well and learn, and that is definitely what a coach wants."

Long Creek/Ukiah boys beat Burnt River

The Long Creek/Ukiah boys basketball team claimed a 47-23 road victory Friday over Burnt River in Unity.

Coach Amos Studtmann, who co-coaches with TC Conner, said the team worked well together and had fair shooting with good defense.

"We got a chance to rotate in all of our players, with our best players spending most of the time on the bench," Studtmann said. "It allowed me and TC to evaluate where our younger players will fit in a more difficult game."

Long Creek/Ukiah was scheduled to play Mitchell/Spray on Tuesday, past press time.

They meet up again Tuesday, Dec. 11, at 5 p.m. in Long Creek.

"Last year, Mitchell/Spray was very aggressive with a high tempo so both games should be fast possibly high-scoring games," he said.

Long Creek/Ukiah girls rout the Bulls

The Long Creek/Ukiah girls basketball team prevailed 35-8 over Burnt River on Friday.

Coach Amos Studtmann said he and coach TC Conner spoke with the girls before the game about focusing on defensive stops.

"We could see, when they got three defensive stops in a row, how the whole momentum of the game shifted to our favor, and when we let our defense slide, our offense became more difficult."

He said every player had time on the court, including five exchange students who have never played basketball before.

Long Creek/Ukiah faces Mitchell/Spray three consecutive times in the next week and a half.

Their first was scheduled on Tuesday past press time. Then the teams meet up Tuesday, Dec. 11, at 5 p.m. in Long Creek.

Studtmann said they will work on reducing simple turnovers in the games against the Eagle/Loggers.
