

The deadline for What's Happening items is 5 p.m. Friday. Call the Eagle, 541-575-0710, or email editor@bmeagle.com. For meetings this week, see our list in the classifieds.

Thursday, Jan. 10

Quickbooks for Ag seminar

• 4-8 p.m., Extension Office classroom

Space is limited to 20 people. RSVP by Jan. 4. The price is $10 per person. For more information, call 541-575-1911 or stop by the office at 116 NW Bridge St. in John Day.

Friday, Jan. 11

Cancer benefit dinner

• 4:30 p.m. and 6 p.m., John Day Golf Club

The dinner will support gastrointestinal stromal tumor cancer research. There will be two dinner times at 4:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. Dinner includes chicken or beef enchiladas, Mexican rice, refried beans, chips and salsa with flan for dessert. The cost is $15 for singles, $25 for couples and $7 for kids 7 and under. For more information, call Linda McClellan at 541-620-2352 or call 541-575-0170.

Monday, Jan. 14

Google seminar

• 5 p.m., Extension Office classroom, back entrance

Spend the evening navigating Google. Learn how to set up a Google account, find commonly used templates and learn where to save and access documents. Cindy Dougharity-Spencer is the teacher, and the cost is $10 per person. Bring your own laptop or borrow one on site. For more information, call 541-575-1911 or email mccrackd@oregonstate.edu.

Friday, Jan. 18

YAP concert

• 7 p.m., John Day United Methodist Church

The Youth Arts Program concert, featuring music from 1918, has been rescheduled to Jan. 18. Admission is free. Donations are encouraged. For more information, contact Janine Goodwin at 541-820-4331 or grantcountyap@gmail.com.

Sunday, Jan. 20

Jackpot clay pigeon shoot

• 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., Kimberly Rock Products

A fundraiser for the Grant County Sheriff Search and Rescue, the cost is $3 per shot. A baked goods auction will be held along with a raffle of various items. Concessions and lunch will be available by donation. For more information, call 541-934-2143.

Monday-Tuesday, Jan. 28-29

Community blood drive

• 1-6 p.m. Monday, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, John Day
• 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, John Day

To schedule an appointment, call 1-800-RED-CROSS or visit redcrossblood.org and enter the sponsor code "JOHNDAYCOMMUNITY."

Wednesday, Jan. 30

Community blood drive

• 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., Prairie City School

To schedule an appointment, call 1-800-RED-CROSS or visit redcrossblood.org and enter the sponsor code "PRAIRIECITY."

OBITUARIES

Carl John Lino Jr.

Aug. 19, 1943 — Dec. 23, 2018

Carl John Lino Jr., 75, of John Day passed away Dec. 23 at Blue Mountain Hospital in John Day. Services will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, March 23, at Grant Union Junior-Senior High School.

Carl was born to Marian Knowles and Carl Lino Sr. on Aug. 19, 1943, in Elko, Nevada. He attended Elko High School and went on to attend Lewis and Clark College, graduating in 1965. Carl married Sondra June Laing on Aug. 21, 1965, in Portland and welcomed three children. He worked as the high school principal for North Marion High from 1965 through 1980. He then worked for the Grant County educational system as the principal of Grant Union High School from 1980 to 1995 when he retired.

Carl enjoyed playing golf and was a member of the John Day Golf Club. He also enjoyed playing cards and traveling. His extensive travels took him to all 50 states and all seven continents. He was a committed member of the John Day Elks Lodge where he was the past Oregon State Elks President, National Elks Treasurer and inducted into the Elks State Hall of Fame in both Oregon and Idaho. He held numerous local, state and national officer positions with the Elks Lodge. Carl was also the mayor of Hubbard for two terms.

Carl was preceded in death by his parents; loving wife, Sondra; and brother David Lino.

He is survived by his daughters, Lisa (Tom) Berry of Boise, Idaho; Jody (Keith) Hammock of Bend; brother Jim (Cathy) Lino of Elko, Nevada; and three granddaughters, Rachel, Katelyn and Lauren.

Memorial contributions may be made to Blue Mountain Hospital or the Elks Casey Eye Institute through Driskill Memorial Chapel, 241 S. Canyon Blvd., John Day, OR 97845.

To leave a condolence for the family, visit driskillmemorialchapel.com.

Robert Watson

Aug. 15, 1943 — Dec. 16, 2018

Robert Lane Watson, 75, of Baker City, Oregon, passed away at his residence in Settler's Park Assisted Living Community on Dec. 16. A memorial service will be held Saturday, Jan. 5, at 11 a.m. in the United Methodist Church, 1919 Second St., Baker City. Private inurnment will be held in the Prairie City Cemetery at a later date. A reception will follow the service at the church.

Robert was born on Aug. 15, 1943, in Prairie City, Oregon, to Robert and Loretta (Bradford) Watson. Robert worked as a ranch/farm hand for the Henry Ricco Ranch, a green chain/firefighter for Ellingson Lumber, track laborer, maintenance of way for the Union Pacific Railroad, RV mechanic for Fred's Travelrama, a tanker laborer for the Gunderson Brothers at the Portland shipyards and as a manufacturer for Joey Bed.

He is survived by his sister Beverly McKinnis (Maurice) of Baker City; nephews Glenn McKinnis of Baker City and Ron McKinnis (Jennifer) of Hermiston, Oregon; nieces Cheryl Clow (Mike) of Portland, Oregon, and Teresa Millwood (Jamie) of Baker City; cousins Roxie Lissman (Hank) of John Day, Oregon, Loleta Grace (Dick) of Veneta, Oregon, Dan Hammond (Anna) Prineville, Oregon, Penny Estrada of Prairie City, Candy Makela of Phoenix, Arizona, and Patty Bradford of Baker City; great-niece Alex Murphy (Justin) and family of Hermiston, Oregon; great-nephew Ryan McKinnis (Michelle) and family of Rosharon, Texas; special friends Bill Campbell and Jerry Don Campbell; and godson David Lyles (Kelly) of Baker City, Oregon.

Robert is preceded in death by his parents. Those wishing to make memorial contributions may direct them to Heart 'N' Home Hospice or Best Friends; this may be done through Coles Tribute Center, 1950 Place St., Baker City, OR 97814.

To light a candle for Robert or to leave a condolence for his family, visit coletributecenter.com.

Edgar 'Leroy' Duncan

Aug. 15, 1937 — Dec. 25, 2018

Edgar "Leroy" Duncan, 81, of Prairie City, Oregon, passed away Tuesday, Dec. 25, at his home.

Leroy was born to Edgar and Nora (Ipok) Duncan in Alley Springs, Missouri, on Aug. 15, 1937. He graduated from Redmond High School, in Redmond, Oregon. On Aug. 29, 1958, Leroy married Sharon Beaver in Redmond. They welcomed three children, two daughters and one son.

Leroy worked at D.A.W. Lumber in Redmond for 37 years. He was a member of the National Wild Turkey Federation and the N.R.A. Some of his hobbies included spending time outdoors, where he enjoyed hunting, fishing, camping and riding his ATV.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Edgar and Nora Duncan; sisters Virginia Cansler, Floy Case and Carol Francis Clark; son-in-law, Edward Petersen; and nephew Scott Case.

He is survived by his loving wife of 60 years, Sharon Duncan, of Prairie City; son Ken Duncan and daughter Kay Duncan, both of Redmond; daughter Kathy Aquilar of Forest Grove, Oregon; six grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

To leave a condolence for the family, visit driskillmemorialchapel.com.

Michael 'Mike' Gordon Steele

Dec. 1, 2018

Michael "Mike" Gordon Steele, 77, of McCall, Idaho, passed away Saturday, Dec. 1, at a hospital in Boise, Idaho. Arrangements have been entrusted to All Valley Cremation in Nampa, Idaho.

Mike was born in Cornucopia, a small mining community in the mountains above Halfway, Oregon. His family moved to Prairie City, Oregon, when he was barely 4 years old and where he attended school from first through 11th grades. He graduated from Grant Union High School where he attended his senior year. Mike excelled at athletics. He lettered in five varsity sports while he was a freshman, an unheard of feat. He married Roma Nadine Smith (Steele) on Aug. 14, 1959. They spent 58 years together until Roma passed away in August of 2017.

Mike had a varied life that went from a rough and tumble timber faller, to a pastor, to a successful manager of motels where he attained notoriety in the Montana Chamber of Commerce. He was known by his friends as "Bullneck Moose Face."

He is survived by three daughters, Michele Steele, Melinda Steele Owen and Melissa (Kevin) Van Riper; seven grandchildren; sixteen great-grandchildren; and his younger brother, Terry R. Steele of Ritter, Oregon.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ebb Arthur Steele and Edith Willetta (Brown) Steele; and his older brother, Ebb Arthur Steele Jr. ("Sonny").

John Francis Fiedor Jr.

John Francis Fiedor Jr., 66, passed away Dec. 24 at his residence in Dayville, Oregon. Memorial services were held on Sunday, Jan. 6, at the Dayville Community Church in Dayville.

John was the first born to Helen Banco and John Fiedor Sr. on Feb. 20, 1952, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He attended high school at Bowie High in Maryland and graduated in 1970; he continued his education at the University of Maryland graduating in 1974. John was a master of historic interpretation and worked for the National Park Service as a ranger at Harpers Ferry, Gettysburg, Great Falls, George Washington Monument in Washington, D.C., and the Glenn Echo Park in Maryland before his relocation to Oregon, where he worked for the John Day Fossil Beds. His working career lasted from 1976 until 2012, when he retired. He was a modern day renaissance man and a true gentleman.

John enjoyed being active in local government, stargazing, coaching football, fossil tours through the John Day Fossil Beds and was an artist and a painter.

He acted and directed at the Shepherdstown Theater in West Virginia, was a member of the Civil Air Patrol in Maryland and a member of the 1974 Maryland football team.

He was preceded in death by his father, John Fiedor Sr. He is survived by his mother, Helen Fiedor of Uniontown, Pennsylvania; brothers Craig (Kathy) Fiedor of Uniontown and Mark (Val) Fiedor of Boston, Massachusetts; sister Karen (Wayne) Taylor of Brooklyn, Maryland.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Grant County Food Bank through Driskill Memorial Chapel, 241 S. Canyon Blvd., John Day, OR 97845. To offer an online condolence to the family, please visit driskillmemorialchapel.com.

CORRECTION

On Jan. 2 the Eagle reported that Hayden J. Young was sentenced in Grant County Justice Court for careless driving that caused an accident. There was no accident. The Eagle regrets the error.

Robbins Farm Equipment
 3850 10th St. Baker City 541-523-6377
 62302 Pierce Rd. La Grande 541-963-6577
 1160 S Egan Burns 541-573-6377
 86812 Christmas Valley Hwy. Christmas Valley 541-576-2160

OREGON CAPITAL INSIDER
 Get the inside scoop on state government and politics!

We want to thank everyone who took tags and donated food for the Prairie City Fire Department Christmas Basket Program. A special thank you to the people behind the scene.

Prairie City School	US Forest Service
Aleen Lynch	Tom Gangler
Lyn McDonald	Randy Heman
Carole Garrison	Syd Holman
Huffman's Market	Pam Howard
Chris Camarena	Becky Tatum
Dave Packard Sr.	Bobbie Brown
Georgia Patterson	Carol Waggoner
Carla Wright	Carlos Bortell
Louella Simrell	Jake Ellison
Glenda Harvey	Sarah LeClaire
Tonya Wood

Wishing Everyone A Very Happy New Year!

Last Week's Temps

John Day.....	HI/LO
Tuesday.....	26/10
Wednesday.....	36/20
Thursday.....	40/26
Friday.....	38/30
Saturday.....	46/32
Sunday.....	40/28
Monday.....	32/23

24/7 FORECAST
 AUTOMATED: 541-575-1122
 ROAD CONDITIONS: 511; TRIPCHECK.COM
 NOAA WEATHER RADIO FOR JOHN DAY
 162.500 MHZ

WEATHER FORECAST FOR THE WEEK OF JAN. 8-15

Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday
Cloudy	Partly sunny	Mostly cloudy	Partly sunny	Mostly sunny	Morning flurries	Partly sunny
48	46	45	44	42	40	36
36	30	28	26	26	17	22