Mother's Day May 12th

The Blue Mountain Eagle asked youth in Grant County
"How does your mom brighten your day?"

"She makes me coffee every morning."
Austin Walker, 18
Dayville

"By making me breakfast. She also makes me lunch and dinner."
Jacob DeHart, 9
Prairie City

"My mom brightens my day by helping me a lot. She takes me to all my baseball games, and helps me get ready for my day."
Baryn Huerta, 11
John Day

"My mom always cheers me up. She lets me help take care of our pets, and she reads 'Little House on the Prairie' to me."
Olivia Campbell, 8
Kimberly

"She washes my critters. She tucks me in at night. She reads to me."
Ben Henslee, 5
Long Creek

"I love my mom because she cared for me my whole life. She fed me, bought me clothes, gave me a dog and so on. My mom is great and there are so many great things to talk about, but it would take an hour. I love you, Mom!"
Ansleigh Douglas, 11
Long Creek

"My mom is the best because she is nice to me!"
Orion Hercher, 7
Long Creek

"She talks about stuff that makes me feel better."
Paige Hicks, 9
Prairie City

"My mom helps me with my chores and helps me take care of my horse. She also gives me little tips on life."
Jin Bo Ciochetti, 11
Kimberly
