

Seneca Oyster Feed draws a crowd

By Richard Hanners

About 200 people braved overcast skies to enjoy the annual Seneca Oyster Feed, a fundraiser for the Bear Valley Meadows Golf Course.

Diners gathered under a large tent to enjoy plates of grilled oysters on the half shell or deep-fried oysters. Music was provided by Bucky, James Potts Schmidt of Warrenton.

The day began early with a golf scramble with four teams. The winning team included Brad Smith, Matt Wenick, Dale Plemon and Jay Kenyon. Winner for closest to the pin was Cody Riley, and the longest drive went to Reuben Harvey.

Mark Novak of Burns won the home run derby, knocking seven softballs out of the park with 10 swings. That was followed by a coed softball tourney. Each team supplied its own pitcher, and four players manned the outfield.

CHC of Central Oregon, with only nine players, took first place in the softball tournament. Puled Hamhawks of Burns placed second, and the Screwballs of Burns took third. Eight teams entered the tourney.

Callie Moss was the grand prize raffle winner of a Ruger American Predator bolt-action rifle. Kurt Hodson was the raffle winner for the Calcutta Cooler. Dodie Hunt won the Leupold binoculars, and Dale Plemon won the golf package at The Retreat & Links at Silvies Valley Ranch, John Day and Burns.

The grills were busy at the Seneca Oyster Feed May 18.
