OBITUARIES

Dan Mason Yates

Sept. 25, 1953 – Oct. 4, 2019

Dan Mason Yates, age 66, of Mt. Vernon, Oregon, passed away on Oct. 4 in Bend. His funeral service was held on Oct. 8 at Driskill Memorial Chapel in John Day. Interment was at Canyon City Cemetery.

Dan was born on Sept. 25, 1953, in Albuquerque, New Mexico, to Thomas Mason Yates and Alene Anne Horton Yates. He attended Los Lunas High School and graduated in 1971. On Feb. 9, 1974, he married Sandra Jean Dodd in Mena, Arkansas. This marriage later ended in divorce. He married Kathy Thomas in October 2002 in Arkansas, a union which also ended in divorce. Dan did road maintenance and was a heavy equipment operator for the Arkansas Highway and Transportation Department. He was proud to have served them for 25 years until his retirement in 2017. He enjoyed wood working, hunting, fishing, Harley Davidson, carpentry and spending time with his family.

Dan is survived by his children, Millie Yates of Bryant, Arkansas, Mandy Hicks (Del), Jacob Yates and Becky Yates all of Hot Springs, Arkansas; sister, Tollene Russell (Gerald) of Mt. Vernon; brother, Harold Yates (Lois) of Concordia, Missouri; six grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Thomas and Alene Yates; and granddaughter, Madison Mae Martin.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Wounded Warrior Program through Driskill Memorial Chapel, 241 S. Canyon Blvd., John Day, OR 97845.

David Dale Vaughan

Dec. 21, 1958 – Oct. 5, 2019

On Saturday, Oct. 5, David Dale Vaughan passed away in the early morning, surrounded by loved ones.

David Dale Vaughan was born Dec. 21, 1958, in Heppner, Oregon. He was raised in and around Fox Valley. At the age of 20, he served in the United States Navy for a short time, after which he became a logger. David really enjoyed being a logger. He loved being outdoors, going hunting and fishing. He also loved to spend time with his family. His other passion was spreading Bible truths as a Jehovah's Witness.

After being injured logging, David survived many medical issues and physical tribulations. He had many dreams, one of which included being with his children and loved ones in paradise, and building a giant tree house everyone could enjoy.

A memorial service to celebrate his life will be held Oct. 26 at 1 p.m. at the Henley Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses at 7290 Henley Road, Klamath Falls, OR 97603. Flowers or condolences may be sent to the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses.
