MISSION STATEMENT

Painted Sky Center for the Arts' mission is to advance arts education and entertainment, enhancing the quality of life, and promoting cultural development in the community. Through its programs, the Arts Center will be a dynamic organization that empowers and transforms individuals through created education and experience.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

- Memberships: We have several levels of memberships available, including a Founding Membership opportunity. Memberships start at $25 per year.
- Donations: We gladly accept new art supplies, new or gently used musical instruments, office supplies, or miscellaneous upkeep items (paper towels, cleaning supplies or toilet paper). These items can be dropped off on our back porch at 118 S. Washington St., Canyon City, or email paintedskycenter@gmail.com to arrange drop off. Cash donations can be made in person at the office (call 541-620-3788 to arrange meeting), on our website, paintedskycenter.com, or mailed to PO Box 21, Canyon City, OR 97820.
- Volunteering: We love our volunteers! How would you like to help? We'd love to have you join us!
- Teaching: Seeking teachers for all classes, all levels. Paid teaching positions are available.
