Dear Santa,
I hope that you get this letter. I know I haven't been the best kid this year. But if it is not too much to ask I would like a watch phone and I think my mom would like to have a nice relaxing vacation where we're all having a good time and maybe a massage. My dad would love a break from feeding for a couple of days. And I know my brother would love an Xbox. Thank you Santa for taking time to read my letter.

*Love,
Silvie Holliday*

Dear Santa,
I hope your elves aren't tired yet. I have been good this year. I would like a Nintendo DS lite. I think my little brother wants a Goo Jit Zu action figure. My oldest brother probably wants cereal. My Mom would like something with her family on it. I hope you have a safe night.

*From,
Sam Rausch*

Dear Santa,
I hope you have had the best year you could ever have. I think that I have been good this year. I don't quite know what I want for Christmas but I just had baby bunnies. We either need a new hutch for the male bunny or a bigger hutch for the mom and babies.

I don't really know what my family wants but I'll try. My dad I think would like some kind of new fencing tool. Anna would probably like some more books even though she already has like 1,000 books. My brother, I really don't know, a hoodie that says "Basketball is my Girlfriend." I hope ou stay nice and cozy in your sleigh.

*Your friend,
Emma Field*

Dear Santa,
I hope you aren't freezing up there. How have you been this year? I have been OK.

This year I would like a trainig set so I can train my puppy. My brother would like a rock tumbler. My sister would like a play house for her babys. My mom would like a pair of earrings. My dad would like a gun safe. I hope you don't freeze on the way down to us. I also hope you stop so the reindeer can have a drink.

*Your friend,
Tatyn Harper*

Dear Santa,
I hope you will have a good Christmas. I have been nice but I have my times. Can you please stop by my house? My sister would love a poop-sie purse which is a bag full of slime that you can make. My Grandpa would love all the Jack Reacher books and my Grandma would love an iPad that she could play all of her games on. My mom would love a new house for me and my sister and her to stay in. My uncle would love a new bow even if he said he doesn't want one. And I would love a new phone case and a phone gripper.

*Love,
